TRENCHES TAKEN BY CROWN PRINCE'S MEN

Austrian Wedge is Driven
Deeply Into Italian Territory.

Today's War News Given in Summary

Continuing their furious assaults in the Verdun region the Germans, having succeeded in again wresting the battered ruins of Fort Douaumont from the French, have driven hard against the lines west of the fort. In this new attack the crown prince's forces succeeded in gaining a foothold in a French trench near the Handremont quarry, which has been the scene recently of much hard fighting.

At Fort Douaumont itself the infantry engagements waged so desperately during the early part of the week, have ceased for the time being, according to the afternoon statement of the French war office.

The artillery is still notably active. Its fire has been particularly severe on the west bank of the Meuse, near hill 304 and from Dead Man's Hill to Cumieres, the village close to the river, just captured by the Germans and from which they have so far been prevented from debouching by the energetic work of the French guns.

East of Cumieres the French report having made some progress in hand grenade operations.

Latest reports from the fighting on the Austro-Italian front indicate that the Austrians have driven a wedge rather deeply into Italian territory between the Aza and Astico valleys, southeast of Trent. The Italians admitted they have been falling back in this sector, where they now report a concentration of their forces in the Asiolo basin.

The sinking by a submarine of the British steamer Washington, a vessel of 5,080 tons, is announced in London.

Rome reports the destruction of an Austrian gunboat and an Austrian aeroplane in an engagement with an Italian gunboat in the upper Adriatic.

Berlin, May 25.—The repulse of three counter attacks by the French on the village of Cumieres, to the west of the Meuse on the Verdun front, was announced by the war office today.

The capture of additional French trenches southwest and south of Fort Douaumont and the recapture of the Handremont quarry by the Germans are also reported.

Field Marshal Alexander von Kluck was 70 years old on Saturday. He received many congratulatory messages, one of them from Emperor William. The field marshal's health has been restored, although one bullet has not yet been extracted, and he has again offered his services to the emperor.

Field Marshal von Kluck, the defeat of whose army at the battle of the Marne halted the German advance into France in the early days of the war,

LOCAL BOY WINS ORATORICAL HONORS

Samuel D. Jackson Tops Debaters from Twelve Colleges at Muncie.

Samuel D. Jackson, graduate of the Fort Wayne High and Manual Training school, and now a student at the Indiana Law school, won the first prize of $50 offered at Muncie Wednesday in the state oratorical contest. Representatives of the state's twelve leading colleges were in debate on constitutional reforms.

Theodore F. Thieme, of this city; Ross F. Lockridge, of Indianapolis, and Winfield Miller, of Indianapolis, were the judges. The debate was in connection with the conference of the Citizens' League of Indiana.

Jackson devoted his address to the judiciary and the reforms which, he said, were needed. The pick of Indiana's college orators were in competition, and the honor is a high one for the local young man.

When a student at the Fort Wayne high school, young Jackson lived with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Jackson, of Delta avenue, and was one of the reorganizers of the school debating society. At the local school he won a number of debates and oratorical contests, and represented Fort Wayne high school at the northern Indiana high school debate two years ago. He entered the law school as soon as he was graduated from the high school and is employed in vacation season at Meyer Bros. Drug company.

NEW EXPOSITION BUILDING FALLS

Structure on Ball Park Ground Collapses, Injuring One.

One of the buildings on the Fort Wayne exposition grounds on North Calhoun street collapsed shortly after 1 o'clock Thursday afternoon, throwing M. G. Preston from the roof and injuring his back and arm. The building was not yet completed, and it is thought that insufficient bracing caused the accident.

About 100 feet of the structure collapsed and Preston was thrown into the mass of broken timbers. Superintendent Delegrange was not on the grounds at the time, but other workmen carried Preston to the office building and administered first aid until the arrival of Dr. E. J. McOscar. The man's home is at Harlan and he has been rooming in the Foellinger block.

Dr. McOscar found that his injuries were not of an extremely serious nature, but Preston will be laid up for some time.

NEW MOVEMENT OF AMERICAN TROOPS

Columbus, N. M., May 25.—A new movement of American troops along Gen. J. J. Pershing's line of communication was reported here today. The movements made within the last forty-eight hours were said to offset the redistribution of certain Carranza commands, but no details were available at military headquarters and it was pointed out any movements under way were minor and do not affect the general expeditionary policy.

A quantity of shrapnel and other ammunition which arrived here from the front Monday, today was sent back. It was explained that the shipment had been consigned from Nampiqua to Colonia Dublan, but through a mistake was carried through to Columbus.

Several cavalry patrols are scouting through the Nampiqua district, according to fragmentary reports reaching here.

Early Life of Accused Dentist is Sketched by His

New York, May 25.—The fight to save Dr. Arthur Warren Waite from the electric chair began today before Justice Shearn in the criminal branch of the supreme court. The prosecution closed its case yesterday and this morning Walter R. Deuel, counsel for Dr. Waite, began his opening address for the defense. Mr. Deuel said he expected to finish the case for the defense by Friday night.

Attendance at the trial was somewhat decreased today. Mrs. Clara Peck Waite, the prisoner's wife, sat near the jury box partly hidden from the gaze of the spectators. Miss Elizabeth B. Hardwick, who sent the "K. Adams" message giving Percy Peck warning of suspicions of murder, was in the court room, as were also Warren W. Waite, father of the young dentist, and Frank A. White, his brother.

Of Unsound Mind.
In beginning his address Mr. Deuel told the jurors it would be shown that Dr. Waite was of unsound mind. He also announced that the prisoner would take the stand in his own behalf. Waite's history, the attorney added, would show his mental weakness, while his father and two brothers would testify as to the prisoner's condition and concerning circumstances in his early life. Counsel promised to produce alienists to show that Waite's mind is diseased.

MASS MEETING ON SATURDAY EVENING

Citizens Called Upon to Rally for Success of Centennial.

As a big final means of enthralling the people of Fort Wayne on the great success of the coming centennial celebration, the announcement is made today of a monster mass meeting of citizens to be held at the assembly room of the Commercial club on the evening of Saturday of this week.

On this occasion Donald Robertson, the pageant master, will deliver an address, and others interested in the centennial features will provide the enthusiasm and information needed to arouse interest to the highest degree.

General Chairman E. C. Miller states that it is hoped that everybody who is at all interested in the success of the celebration will be present at this meeting, beginning at 8 o'clock. This includes not only the members of the working committees, but all others who are interested in the success of any department of the centennial event. It is hoped that hundreds will respond and that the meeting will be the biggest thing yet planned in the preliminary work of boosting the celebration. The ladies especially are invited.

When William E. Mossman mounted the ladder and pushed the Y. M. C. A. campaign clock past the $300,000 mark Wednesday afternoon, the hundreds of boosters massed about him burst into wild applause. Mr. Mossman is seen on the ladder speaking to the crowd just after having moved up the clock hand. "You have put me in the hole, and I'm glad of it," said he, referring to his pledge to give $50,000 toward the building provided the other $250,000 was raised. In the upper picture is seen a section of the woman's division, marching on Calhoun street before the clock was "set."

4,000 ATTEND OLD SETTLERS' PICNIC

Anderson, Ind., May 25.—Nearly four thousand people are attending the all-day old settlers' picnic which is being held at Pendleton today, as the opening event of the Madison county centennial celebration. The day opened with the firing of a welcome salute, after which was a general gathering. At noon an old-time dinner was served.

This afternoon the old settlers, about 150 in number, and others from all over the county, are enjoying a centennial program. Charles L. Henry, of Indianapolis, formerly of this city, who built the Union Traction company line through this section of the state, was the principal speaker of the day. Friday and Saturday the celebration will be held in Anderson.

COURT ORDERS ESTOPS INDIANAPOLIS FIGHTS

Indianapolis, Ind., May 25.—On application of Prosecutor Alvah J. Rucker, Judge Moll today issued a temporary restraining order against the prize fight to be held next Monday night between Jack Dillon and Gunboat Smith. The order was made returnable Monday morning.

The fight was scheduled to be held at the old federal league base ball park and was to be the main attraction for the visitors who will be here for the 300 mile automobile race to be held Tuesday. Mayor Bell, after a conference with a ministerial organization, yesterday declined to interfere with the fight other than to order strict police supervision of it.

LAST NAIL DRIVEN IN MAMMOTH STAGE

The last nail in the mammoth stage at Reservoir park upon which the historical pageant will be given in June was driven Thursday, and by next Wednesday Chairman Edward Miller expects to have everything in readiness for the opening at both the exposition and pageant grounds. Chairman Miller is particularly anxious to have Fort Wayne citizens visit both the pageant and exposition grounds next Sunday and see for themselves what has been done and in this manner get an idea of the magnitude of the forthcoming celebration. One week from next Sunday religious services will be held at the pageant grounds in which all the churches of the city are asked to take part.

BOUGHER IS AGAIN TREASURER OF ELKS

Marion, Ind., May 25.—The Indiana Elks' Reunion association, at the meeting here today, selected Muncie as the place of the state meeting in 1917. These officers were elected: Robert A. Scott, Linton, president; Dr. J. C. Sawyer, Michigan City, vice president; Thomas D. Median, Indianapolis, secretary; Frank E. Bougher, Fort Wayne, treasurer; H. S. Knight, Elkhart, esquire; John B. Browne, Marion, trustee for two years; Ray White, Evansville, trustee for three years.

The parade, the spectacular feature of the annual reunion of Elks, was held here today and more than a thousand persons were in line.

Anderson, Ind., won the ritualistic contest over Muncie, the only other competitor.

METHODISTS WILL NOT LIFT OLD BAN

Proposal to Modify Stand on Amusements Beaten,
435 to 360.

Saratoga Springs, N. Y., May 25.—The Methodist general conference refused today by a vote of 435 to 360 to remove from the discipline of the church the clause which provides the penalty of expulsion for church members who play cards, dance and attend the theater.

More stringent regulations regarding the remarriage by Methodist ministers of divorced persons are provided in a report submitted today by the committee on the state of the church. The church has never recognized any cause for divorce except adultery and has always forbidden remarriage in any case where a divorced wife or husband is living. By the proposed change the minister who performs such a marriage is guilty of maladministration and is to be held answerable to his conference. The total abstinence by Methodist church members from the use of tobacco is urged in another report which states: "We record our solemn judgment that the habitual use of tobacco is a practice out of harmony with the best Christian life."

Polygamy and the social evil are condemned by the committee on temperance and public morals. "The enforcement of laws prohibiting the former is urged.

Regarding the social evil the committee asserts that neither segregation nor punishment by fines is a remedy. The community should officially expel and disperse vice, it continues, and the state should provide industrial settlements for the mentally deficient and an honest place in society for those mentally capable.

Parents and others charged with care of the young ought to give careful consideration to the proper education of our youth to the end that there may be health of body, purity of mind and righteousness of life, the report concludes. Action will be taken later.

From now until adjournment early next week, the conference will be in practically continuous session day and night for the purpose of disposing of large numbers of proposals principally of a routine nature.

MANY LOCAL ELKS AT STATE MEETING

About one hundred members of Fort Wayne lodge No. 155 of Elks left at 7 o'clock in two special cars over the Fort Wayne & Northern Indiana Traction company's line for Marion to be in attendance at the annual state convention. The Fort Wayne delegation was accompanied by the Elks' band, which will furnish music there during the day.

JUST A SUGGESTION OF WHAT'S GOING ON

Everybody Working Hard for Success of the Big Centennial.

With the opening date of the Centennial coming at a rapid rate, everybody is indulging in a rapid hustle to be ready when the first week in June breaks upon the people of Fort Wayne. Here are a few things which are engaging the attention of the hustlers right now:

Various organizations are meeting to make plans to enter the great parade of the opening day—Fraternal day—June 6.

Today the committee of ladies composing the council of the Woman's building is meeting with the chairman, Mrs. Fred J. Hayden.

The merchants, manufacturers and others who are to make displays in the Woman's building conferred today with the committee of the commercial department of the Woman's building to arrange for the spaces for the exhibits there.

The Centennial cabinet, at its noon meetings, reports progress along every line of activity. There isn't a hitch anywhere along the line," says General Chairman E. C. Miller, "but I do wish the people of Fort Wayne would go to the booth at Wolf & Dessauer's at the earliest possible moment and get their seats reserved."

Applications for places in the band contest are coming in from a number of nearby cities and towns.

The construction work at the industrial exposition is transforming the place into a great exhibition area which will be a place of commercial and amusement supremacy for a solid week, June 5 to 10.

Hundreds of home-comers are sending in their acceptances of invitations to "come home" for the Centennial celebration.

Nightly rehearsals for the great pageant are adding finish and enthusiasm to the production.

The city is preparing for special fire protection at the industrial exposition. A new chemical equipment, in charge of six firemen, will be in constant attendance.

The Indiana Engineering Co. is making splendid headway in the building of the pageant stage and the lofty towers on the island at Reservoir park.

The women of the churches are doing a splendid work in pushing the seat sales for the pageant.

Scores of exhibitors at the industrial exposition are making special preparations for their individual booths. Some surprises await the thousands of visitors of Centennial week.

The fourteen high-class outdoor hippodrome attractions for the industrial exposition have been selected with care and on a basis of their excellence.

The decoration of the streets and buildings for the Centennial will be begun within the next few days. A full week will be required to complete the work.

The ladies in charge of the decorated floral automobile parade of Thursday, June 8, report many applications for participation in the event.

Parking facilities for automobiles are being arranged for those who come in machines from other cities.

Miss Muriel Lathmore, in charge of the great "Ballet of Fort Wayne," in which 140 beautiful young girls will appear at the pageant, reports that the rehearsals have brought the dance to a high degree of perfection.

The stage carpenters and scenic artists have completed the scenery for the pageant. It will be set up at the grounds for a try-out during the earliest of the rehearsals there.

The Book of the Pageant will be issued this week. The price is 25 cents. Fred G. Church and the choir boys of Trinity Episcopal church will have charge of the sale.

Tuesday, June 6, is "Fort Wayne Night" at the pageant. Thursday has been designated as "Society Night."

Special trains are being made up by outside cities to carry their delegations to Fort Wayne for the centennial.

The great Scotch Highlands band, the Mooseheart band and many others will join with the Fort Wayne bands in providing a week of melody such as Fort Wayne has never before experienced.

Many mail orders for pageant seats are coming in this week. Remittances of $1 each for reserved seats and $2 for box seats will receive prompt attention. Send remittances to Sam Wolf, chairman, Fort Wayne, Ind.

The automobile dealers will have a great show at the industrial exposition. One whole section of the exposition will be devoted to the automobile exhibit.

The home-coming committee wants to receive information of all places where visitors may be entertained during the centennial. Notify R. B. Garuire, Commercial club, city.

Harry V. Muller, secretary of the pageant committee, whose duty it is to keep the pageant cast of 1,140 people in tact and to see to it that everyone is at rehearsal on time, is one of the busiest men in town these days.

Donald Robertson, the pageant master, expresses his entire satisfaction with the progress of the pageant rehearsals and with the preparations at Reservoir park for the presentation of the spectacle.

The bands of Indians which will be in the city during Centennial week will prove a big drawing card.

LESSON IN OUTDOOR SLEEPING

Miss Byron and Assistants to Show a Model Sick Room.

One of the most enlightening and interesting exhibits of the centennial week will be that in charge of Miss Irene Byron, nurse in charge of the work of the Fort Wayne Anti-Tuberculosis league, and a committee consisting of Mrs. J. R. Meriwether, Mrs. Charles R. Lane, Mrs. Joseph Lohman, Mrs. Fred H. McCulloch, Mrs. Van B. Perrine, Mrs. Fred E. Zollars, Miss Jane Meriwether, Miss Lucile Vail, Miss Italia Evans, Miss Ethel Doud, Miss Carrie Snively, Miss Kate McLaughlin, Miss Philippine Schmidt and Miss Margaret Niezer.

The exhibit will be contained in one of the second floor rooms of the woman's building—the old high school on East Wayne street, where a model sick room will be shown. The principal feature of the room, viewed from the standpoint of the large proportion of the visitors, will be the out-door sleeping bed which can be used in any home.

The object of the exhibit is to afford a lesson in modern sanitation and health precautions. The model sick room will be in charge of trained nurses and so entirely complete in its appointments that it will be ready at any time to serve as a miniature emergency hospital.

INDUSTRIAL EXPOSITION.

The Grounds Present a Mighty Busy Appearance Today.

They're building a little city with all the mushroom features of a western mining town, at the exposition grounds these days. The large corps of builders is transforming the baseball park and the adjoining grounds into a great show place. The booths which will house the great array of exhibits of the merchants, manufacturers and jobbers are of uniform style and finish, a feature which adds much to the attractive appearance of the broad exposition tract.

The spaces alloted for the erection of the platforms and apparatus for the hippodrome acts will soon be equipped with their paraphernalia; the exhibitors will be getting busy with the preparation of their booths, and when the morning of Monday, June 5, arrives the place will

Rehearsal Next Sunday for Introductory Pageant Event.

The spirit of the Fort Wayne pageant will manifest itself in large measure next Sunday afternoon, May 28, when hundreds of the singers of the city will respond to the foregoing invitation issued through the newspapers by Prof. William Miles.

Prof. Miles states that the members of the great Lutheran chorus and the chorus of the Catholic societies, as well as those of the various other denominations are giving a great deal of time to the rehearsal of the splendid selections which have been determined upon, and that the rehearsal of Sunday afternoon is for the purpose of rehearsing the choruses in which all will unite.

Episcopal Boys to Sing.

The boys of the choir of Trinity Episcopal church will be on the program of song which will attract thousands to Reservoir park on the afternoon of Sunday, June 4. The boys' choir is directed by Fred G. Church.

It is announced that the program will open with the singing of "The Fort Wayne Hymn," by the combined choir of hundreds of trained voices. The Lutheran division will then sing "Unfold Ye Portals," from Gounod's "The Redemption." The Episcopal boys' choir will sing "Gloria," from Mozart's "Twelfth Mass." The Catholic division will sing "The Heavens Are Telling," from Haydn's "Creation." The Protestant division or the entire chorus will sing the "Hallelujah Chorus," and the musical program will close with the singing of "America," by the choirs and the audience.

Donald Robertson, the pageant master, will deliver an address on the meaning and value of the civic pageant.

ARE WORKING HARD.

Steady Effort Will Be Required to Get Pageant Grounds Ready.

With only about twelve days separating the present from the time of the opening of the great Fort Wayne pageant, it will require close application to complete the preparation of the pageant grounds for the opening on June 6. Visitors to Reservoir park marvel at the magnitude of the task which still confronts the builders, but there is entire confidence that the place will be in readiness in ample time to allow of the full rehearsal next week.

Rehearsals at Pageant Grounds.

Beginning with the evening of Monday, May 29, the pageant actors will begin their rehearsals at Reservoir park. All of the essentials for the rehearsals will have received attention by that time.

When the rehearsals begin at the pageant grounds, only one scene will be rehearsed in an evening. When each of the six scenes has had a full rehearsal, then the entire pageant will be presented in rehearsal for four full evenings, including Monday evening before the opening of the great spectacle on Tuesday.

ROBERT B. HANNA TO SPEAK.

Will Deliver Address at Dedication of Harman's Ford Marker.

One of the impressive affairs of the Centennial is that planned by the Daughters of the American Revolution, the dedication of the "marker" at historic Harman's ford. Robert B. Hanna has been engaged as the speaker of the occasion. The program will open at 11 o'clock on Wednesday, June 8—Woman's day.

The event will take place directly after the singing of the children at the court house, and before the floral automobile parade.

DEMAND FOR SEATS.

Sales Are Increasing Each Day With the Approach of Opening Day.

The seat sale for the pageant is coming along beautifully, and those who fail to get into the game while the getting is good have no one to blame if they fail to secure just the seats they would most prefer to have.

A large soliciting committee, headed by Maurice C. Niezer, met with excellent success yesterday, and a large number of tickets were purchased by commercial houses, whose members have deferred purchasing their tickets earlier in the season. The people are urged to secure their seats and make their reservations now, in order to avoid the confusion of the final days of the sale.

SETTLEMENT AT ONE PLANT IS PREDICTED

Western Gas Officials and Machinists May Get Together.

Early settlement of the differences between the union machinists and the Western Gas Construction company were predicted Thursday. An effort was to be made later in the day to arrange for a conference when the proposed agreement submitted by the union machinists will be gone over.

Assurances have been given that the company is willing to submit to certain parts of the agreement, but never will consent to a closed shop. The company is also willing, it is understood, to agree to an average minimum wage scale instead of a minimum wage of 37 1/2 cents for every machinist in the company's employ.

The contemplated settlement at the Western Gas may be along the same lines as was agreed to at the plant of S. F. Bowser & Company. Mr. Bowser, the president, some time ago signed a bulletin agreeing to a schedule on a basis of fifty hours per week or five days of nine hours each and five hours on Saturday, time and one-half until midnight for overtime and double time for time worked after midnight and on Sundays and the six legal holidays. In addition to this the Bowser company had previously announced an increase in wages of 7 1/2 per cent to the rate in effect May 1.

The company has also appropriated $10,000 to start a life insurance and old age pension fund.

Officials of the Wayne Oil Tank and Pump company declare that the strike of the union machinists has not interfered with the operation of their plant in the least.

George J. Schwab, secretary and treasurer of the Indiana Federation of Labor, is spending a few days in Fort Wayne. Besides Mr. Schwab there are four or five union organizers working in the city at the present time.

LAFAYETTE PLACE COMPANY BUILDS TENNIS COURTS.

Four of what are probably the finest tennis courts in the city have been laid out in Lafayette place, one of the newest restricted additions of the city, which is located on South Calhoun street, squarely in the path of Fort Wayne's great southward growth.

These new courts are of macadam construction and are a part of the Lafayette Place company's plans for the improvement of the addition, which include the building of a $5,000 community club house, playgrounds for the children, a 210 foot street time for time called Lafayette Esplanade and will be the broadest street in the city. For further particulars see the Wildwood Sales company, Shoaff Building, or any member of the Real Estate Exchange.

GEN. LEMAN SPRUNG OFFER.

Havre, May 25.—5:15 a. m.—The German authorities have offered to allow General Leman, the defender of Liege, to go to Switzerland, according to news received here. Because the permission was granted on the ground of his ill health and age, the general rejected the offer, saying that he did not wish to admit that he was unfit to fight for his country.

IS NAMED DELEGATE TO GENERAL COUNCIL

Rev. E. W. Averill to Represent Michigan City Diocese at St. Louis.

At the closing of the annual council of the Michigan City diocese of the Episcopal church held Wednesday at Trinity church, Rev. E. W. Averill, of Fort Wayne, was elected as delegate to the general council which convenes in St. Louis, Mo., in October. The other delegates of the council are: Rev. L. C. Rogers, of Mishawaka; Rev. J. H. McKenzie, of Howe, and Rev. W. S. Trowbridge, of Michigan City. The lay delegates are E. D. Gaston, of Fort Wayne; Capt. H. S. Norton, of Gary; W. B. Hosford, of Mishawaka, and W. B. Conkey, of Hammond.

The officers were elected as follows: Rev. M. M. Day, of Indiana Harbor, secretary; Rev. G. T. Vail, of Michigan City, treasurer; W. G. Elliott, of South Bend, missionary treasurer; and Stuart Mackibben, of South Bend, chancellor. Bishop White will choose the next annual meeting place. The council went on record as representing the diocese in favor of co-operating in the church pension fund movement. The idea is to raise $5,000,000 and is a national movement.

The delegates to this meeting were loud in their praise of the music which was rendered at the devotional services in the morning. Many declared that the choir of the local church was the finest in the diocese. Rev. Averill was complimented on his splendid work.

Grenhouse, state superintendent of public instruction, was to preside at the opening session this evening of the first state conference on play and recreation, which will be held here tonight, tomorrow and Saturday under the auspices of the Extension division of Indiana university.

The speakers will include Harry G. Hill, president of the Community Welfare League of Indianapolis; Walter B. GARRETT REMAINS WET BY BIG MARGIN

Garrett, Ind., May 25.—In a local option election in which 1,000 votes were cast yesterday, this city remained in the wet column by a margin of 345. In 1911, when the last previous option election was held, the city voted for licensed saloons by a majority of 234. The temperance element had believed there was a chance to wipe out the drinking places and confidence was expressed that in Wednesday's election they would win. The campaign was marked by quiet working until the closing days, when both sides had speakers here. Rev. E. S. Shumaker, superintendent of the Indiana Anti-Saloon league, spoke here Tuesday night at the closing demonstration of the drys. The canvass of votes shows the following: First Ward—Wet, 244; dry, 72. Second Ward—Wet, 171; dry, 89. Third Ward—Wet, 255; dry, 157. Total—Wet, 673; dry, 328.

Albuquerque, N. M., May 25.—Resolutions adopted at the state democratic convention here late last night approved President Wilson's success in guarding the honor and just interests of America and at the same time keeping the country out of the European war, and "his wise foresight in handling the Mexican situation." Twelve district delegates, each with half a vote, were selected.

IF KIDNEYS AND BLADDER BOTHER

Take Salts to flush Kidneys and neutralize irritating acids.

Kidney and Bladder weakness result from uric acid, says a noted authority. The kidneys filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder, where it often remains to irritate and inflame, causing a burning, scalding sensation, or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night. The sufferer is in constant dread, the water passes sometimes with a scalding sensation and is very profuse; again, there is difficulty in voiding it.

Bladder weakness, most folks call it, because they can't control urination. While it is extremely annoying and sometimes very painful, this is really one of the most simple ailments to overcome. Get about four ounces of Jad Salts from your pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, continue this for two, or three days. This will neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation to the bladder and urinary organs which then act normally again.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used by thousands of folks who are subject to urinary disorders caused by uric acid irritation. Jad Salts is splendid for kidneys and causes no bad effects whatever.

Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink, which quickly relieves bladder trouble—Advertisement.

"For six years I've suffered with kidney trouble and for two years I've been bothered severely with rheumatism. I felt draggy all the time. I was unable to walk, and I had shortness of breath. Rheumatic pains across my back and in my left hip and limbs were severe.

"The draggy feeling began to leave soon after I started taking Tanlac. The shortness of breath vanished. I can walk around now as easily as anyone and the neighbors are all talking about it. The rheumatism also has been banished. The last year I've been practically in misery but I feel fine now."

BETTER NOW THAN FOR MORE THAN TWO YEARS

John G. Bertsche, a well known farmer who lives on rural route No. 2, Woodburn, Ind., sixteen miles east of Fort Wayne, testified recently to the relief he gained through use of Tanlac.

He said:

"For two years I suffered severely with stomach trouble. My kidneys also were out of shape. After meals I'd suffer with pains in my stomach. The kidney trouble caused pains in my back and generally I was in a weakened condition.

"I have taken only a little more than a bottle of Tanlac but the stomach trouble is gone entirely. I do not suffer with pains in my stomach now. The pains in my back due to kidney trouble also have disappeared. I'm stronger and better than I have been for more than two years."

GAINS FIFTEEN POUNDS IN FEW WEEKS' TIME

"I had stomach trouble," Mr. Spangler continued. "After eating it would seem that my stomach was heavily loaded for several hours. I bloated easily. Accumulations of gas formed on my stomach. I felt tired in the mornings. I didn't relish or enjoy my food.

"My first bottle of Tanlac brought benefits. I have taken four bottles now and I can eat all I care for without a trace of the heavy feeling in my stomach. I feel much better now. The bloating is entirely gone. I have a fine appetite now. Tanlac did me a wonderful lot of good."

"I began taking Tanlac only a few days when the pains began to disappear. The bloating is entirely gone now. The pains are gone from my stomach also. I can eat anything I like for without had after effects. I feel rested and refreshed in the mornings now."

BE PRETTY, TURN GRAY HAIR DARK

Try Grandmother's old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, you can get it at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, for about 50 cents.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy and attractive.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delicious toilet requisite for those who desire dark hair and a youthful appearance. It is not intended for cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.—Advertisement.

NOTICED BENEFITS WITHIN FIVE DAYS

J. H. Murray, employee of the New York Dental Office in this city, who lives at 125 East Taber street, said recently of Tanlac:

"For three years I was bothered with inflammatory rheumatism in my limbs. My limbs would itch and burn and frequently would become swollen. The pain was severe. I also had pains across my back caused by kidney trouble.

"Four or five days after I started taking Tanlac I noticed benefits. The pains began to leave gradually and now they are practically gone. The pains in my back also are practically gone. I believe one bottle of Tanlac has given me relief from my troubles."

THANKS TANLAC FROM BOTTOM OF HIS HEART

Mrs. Willard Hughes, Fort Wayne woman, who lives at 2212 Foohy avenue, told recently how Tanlac benefited her husband, a conductor for the Pennsylvania R. R. Co. She said:

"My husband's system was run down generally. He had headaches and was bothered with spells of dizziness. He couldn't eat a full meal and he slept poorly.

"It is hard for a medicine to please my husband but he thanks Tanlac from the bottom of his heart for what it has done for him. The headaches and dizziness have been banished since he has taken Tanlac. His appetite is ravenous now. He sleeps much better."

SURPRISED BY WIFE ON HIS RETURN HOME

"I hardly knew my wife when I returned home recently after a trip," H. F. Woodward, a Fort Wayne contractor who lives at 2221 Hanna street, said recently.

"She looked Tanlac while I was away and she improved so much it surprised me," he added.

"Mrs. Woodward's system was in a general run down condition. Headaches bothered her. She felt tired in the mornings. She had no color and her complexion was bad.

"She gained strength quickly after she started taking Tanlac. She feels rested and good when she gets up in the morning now. The color has returned to her face again and she now has a good complexion."

BOAT BUILDER ADDS WORDS OF PRAISE

Herman C. Schroeder, 59 years old, a well known Fort Wayne carpenter and boat builder who lives at 1127 Wheeler street, has this to say of Tanlac:

"All this winter I suffered with muscular rheumatism in my sides and my right knee. I had severe pains over my ribs around my body. My knee was so sore and stiff I could hardly bend it. I couldn't walk more than a square at a time.

"The terrible pains in my sides and ribs are just about gone now since I have taken Tanlac. My right knee also is in much better shape. I can walk downtown and back now without any trouble. The tired feeling I formerly experienced has disappeared and I feel energetic now. I sleep soundly and my appetite is fine."

FARMER IS ABLE TO DO MUCH MORE WORK

"I believe I could go out today and do a bigger day's work than I ever did in my life," Fred Blum, a well known farmer who lives on rural route No. 15, Fort Wayne, said recently. "My good condition is due to taking Tanlac," he added.

"Kidney trouble bothered me fifteen years. I also had muscular rheumatism. Pains in the small of my back were so severe I had to walk stooped over. Often the pains prevented me from arising. The rheumatic pains also were severe, especially in my knees and elbows.

"The pains in my back caused by kidney trouble, are all gone since I have taken Tanlac. After taking Tanlac three days I could tell it was taking hold and was helping me. The results I gained truly are wonderful and I believe Tanlac will hold others just as it did me."

CONTRACTOR TELLS OF HIS RELIEF

J. L. Barrows, a well known Fort Wayne contractor, who lives at Lehigh's hotel, 128 West Main street, gave the following testimony for Tanlac recently:

"I suffered with muscular rheumatism in my arms and shoulders for ten years. My kidneys also were out of shape and for a long time I was in a very nervous condition. Pains in my arms and shoulders were severe. Aching pains came in my back.

"I feel like I could do as much work as I did thirty years ago since taking Tanlac. The kidney trouble is much better, the pains in my back having left. The rheumatism has disappeared. I feel better now than I have since I was thirty-eight years old."

AGED WOMAN FEELS BETTER EVERY WAY

Mrs. Julia Ehrman, 60 years old, wife of Fred H. Ehrman, a well known machinist at the Indiana Road Machine Co., who lives at 711 Frederick street, has found relief through use of Tanlac.

"I had inflammatory rheumatism of a severe form. Rheumatic pains and swellings in my knees, feet and ankles bothered me. I also had stomach trouble. There was a full feeling in my stomach most of the time and I bloated easily.

"The rheumatic pains and swellings are greatly relieved since I have taken Tanlac. The stomach trouble also is much better. The bloating is about gone. I have a fine appetite now and I sleep fine. I'm better in every way."

FIRMLY DENIES HE WAS INTOXICATED

Louis Gallmeyer, 45 years old, member of the firm of Gallmeyer Bros., general contractors, of 2335 Weisler Park avenue, is one of Tanlac's firm friends. He said:

"For several years I have suffered with nervousness and chronic unsteadiness. When I would stand for any length of time I'd become shaky and unsteady. People thought I was intoxicated when I'd walk down the street. I was so unsteady my circulation also was poor.

"After taking Tanlac for about a week I seemed to have more strength and my nerves became steadier. I can walk almost as well as anyone now. My circulation also is much better now and my feet and limbs do not get numb and cold. I certainly can recommend Tanlac."

GAINS IN STRENGTH.

Phillip Welck, a well known employee of the Fort Wayne Electric Works, who lives on Freeman street, rural route No. 7, Fort Wayne, told as follows recently, of Tanlac's help for him:

"I was in a weakened physical condition. For a long time I have had stomach trouble and when I was attacked with the grip it made it more severe. I had chills and fever. My appetite was poor. Formations of gas came in my stomach.

"Since taking Tanlac my appetite is fine. The chills and fever bother me no more. I am not bothered with the bloated feeling I formerly suffered and I'm stronger now."

FORT WAYNE WOMAN FINDS NEW GOLD

"Tanlac is worth its weight in gold. I never in my life took any medicine that did me as much good as Tanlac."

This tribute was paid the Master Medicine recently by Mrs. Fay Hammentree, wife of the owner of an express and dray line in this city who lives at 1414 Fairfield avenue.

"I was a perfect wreck," Mrs. Hammentree continued. "It was due to severe kidney trouble. For two years I was unable to walk unless I had assistance. Terrible pains came in my back in the region of the kidneys. I had blind and dizzy spells.

"The blind and dizzy spells are gone now since I have taken Tanlac and I feel better and stronger in every way. I can walk any place without assistance now. The pains in my hips have left."

DAILY BIBLE READINGS FOR THE HOME

Galatians 5:1-6.

1 Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage.
 2 Behold, I Paul say unto you, that if ye be circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing.
 3 For I testify again to every man that is circumcised, that he is a debtor to do the whole law.
 4 Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; ye are fallen from grace.
 5 For we through the Spirit wait for the hope of righteousness by faith.
 6 For in Jesus Christ neither circumcision availeth anything, nor uncircumcision; but faith which worketh by love.

How thankful we should be for a spiritual religion—"Free from the Law, O blessed condition, Jesus has died and there is remission." These Jewish converts lacked faith's wings to rise into such spiritual relation with God. As a long-caged bird will not escape though the door be left open, let us not degrade our liberty into a license that imprisons in the material.

It Will All Be Needed.

Fort Wayne has never done a finer thing, or accomplished it in more splendid fashion than her achievement in raising pledges of more than $300,000 for a Y. M. C. A. building, and in reaching the goal full two days before the expiration of the ten-day limit set for the whirlwind campaign. Very wisely, too, it has been determined to continue the work until Friday evening in order that the fund may be further increased.

However generous may be the response to appeals from now until the close of the campaign, and however high it will be possible to push the sum-total of Fort Wayne's generosity in this endeavor, it will all be needed. The greater the fund at hand the more completely will it be possible to respond to the needs of Fort Wayne men and boys of the present and of the future. It was the very general opinion of those who recently visited the Muncie building that a structure of that size, representing an investment of more than $250,000, would be much too small for Fort Wayne's needs. The purchase of a location, central as it must be, is going to cut heavily into the funds at Fort Wayne's disposal.

Let us keep in mind past experiences as well as the city's future prospects. When the Anthony hotel was erected but a few years ago there were plenty of people who were amazed at the profligacy of expenditure and declared that it was little less than financial insanity to build on so vast a scale in a city of Fort Wayne's size. Yet it soon became necessary to make substantial additions to the original structure. Still later, when the Y. W. C. A. was constructed, it promised to be ample for many years to come. Yet today the Y. W. C. A. is badly cramped for dormitory facilities and is hampered in fulfilling to the largest measure of its mission because of this fact. Let us not again fall into the old error. While we are building, let us build adequately. The city has been stirred deeply to its duty on the Y. M. C. A. project, and while it is doing it it will not desire to do it in half-way fashion. Today and tomorrow furnish the opportunity for the crowning achievement in this splendid undertaking. Three hundred thousand dollars is fine, but $350,000 or $400,000 will be infinitely better.

By a strict party vote the senate judiciary committee has recommended the confirmation of the nomination of Mr. Brandeis to the supreme court bench. The decision has been reached after a contest that has been remarkable both for the fight made on Mr. Brandeis by his opponents, and for the smashing defense made for him by his friends. The active career of the Boston man makes it inevitable that he should possess some extremely energetic enemies as well as some forceful friends, and there has been no hesitancy on the part of either in making themselves heard. By this time the senate should be pretty well equipped with information on the case—information is what it wanted.

Twelfth district progressive chairmen at a meeting in Fort Wayne Wednesday selected delegates to the hull moose convention and voted their cordial endorsement of Colonel Roosevelt, deciding to stand pat for the progressive organization. And after all, if Colonel Roosevelt forces the Chicago republican convention to accept him as a candidate, it may be possible to demonstrate that the mountain has moved to Mahomet rather than the latter gentleman doing the traveling himself.

Senator Taggart made some of his distinguished colleagues gasp in the senate the other day when he delivered a resounding wallop on the dome of the rivers and harbors bill and declared he would not support any variety of "pork barrel" legislation. The new senator from Indiana appears to be rapidly getting a pretty clear conception of the views of the people back home and is seriously endeavoring to transfer them to action at Washington.

Now that Dr. Grayson, the president's physician, has taken a Georgia girl as his bride, the Washington matrimonial match-makers can indulge themselves in a few sighs of relief and turn their attention elsewhere. The attractive bachelor doctor of the white house staff has been claiming a good deal of their wholly voluntary endeavors for the past year or more.

Of course Mr. Koehler, with a fine and jail sentence hanging over him for violation of the liquor law, can go right ahead and apply for a renewal of the license for his South Calhoun street saloon in June, but the county commissioners should right now be rehearsing to get the proper emphasis on the "NO" with which to answer his request in case he still has nerve enough to make it.

And the house promptly struck from the Porto Rican civil government bill the provision giving the women of Porto Rico the ballot, which was slyly inserted by the jocular Mr. Mann, of Chicago. Somehow we rather expected that to happen.

2,000 HUSBANDS OF FEDERATION DELEGATES LONELY IN NEW YORK.

New York, May 25.—More than 2,000 men have been brought here from all parts of the country to the biennial convention of the General Federation of Women's clubs by their delegate-wives. And if ever any men felt thoroughly "out of it," these 2,000 do.

These men wander aimlessly about town while their wives are getting together on their own account. The men have formed "The Lone Husbands' club," an informal organization which holds meetings anywhere its members happen to find themselves.

The husbands are not in the least excited about whether Mrs. Samuel B. Sneath, of Tiffin, O., or Mrs. Josiah Evans Cowles, of Los Angeles, Cal., is elected president of the huge organization, which has sent more than 15,000 delegates to New York.

Their sole object is to find others of their own kind with whom they can "pal" while their wives are attending conferences and entertainments.

But do not think the men regard their wives' activities lightly. "We're learning more about politics than we ever knew before," said one husband. "In many states from which these women came they can have almost any legislation they want. They are a real power. And the skill with which they engineer their campaigns within this organization is amazing."

WOMEN BUSY.

(Indiana Daily Times.)

In spite of the fact Indiana has been slow to give women the vote, it is worthy of note the politicians are inclined to accord to Hoosier womanhood a place and a part in political activities. For example, Indiana republicans who are working for the advancement of the C. W. Fairbanks presidential candidacy have taken proper cognizance of the woman vote of suffrage states and have arranged for active work by Indiana republican women at the coming republican national convention. No doubt there will be several women candidates in the convention, hailing from states where women already vote. No doubt Indiana republican women, though not yet voters, may be helpful in reaching the women from other states who have won seats in the convention. Then, too, it needs the tact and winsomeness of women to complete the adequate appeal to the modern voting army. Indiana women have reason to feel encouraged as to the outlook for the furtherance of the cause of equal rights in the state. The attitude of Indiana men toward the issue of woman suffrage is changing very perceptibly and with acceleration. It would not be surprising to see the 1917 Indiana legislature make wise and timely concessions to Indiana womanhood. In the meantime the women who attend national conventions and take part in the proceedings as social and influential side-line factors may reasonably hope to impress on the men the capacity and the intelligent adaptability of Indiana women.

LITTLE INTEREST IN DUBLIN. Dublin, May 25.—Astonishingly little interest is displayed here in the trial of Sir Roger Casement, both in political and general circles. Casement was almost entirely unknown here before the war. Since then vague reports of his activities in Germany have been all that have reached the Irish public in spite of the fact that he was in touch with the leaders of the recent rebellion. As an element in Irish politics Casement had no existence. The importance attached to his connection with the Sinn Fein revolt both in England and abroad is not quite understood in this country.

Holman Gregor and W. T. Snell were named to defend Bailey. Thomas Scanlon, member of parliament and one of the secretaries of the Irish party, also will appear for him.

AT THE MAJESTIC. Official German View of the War in Pictures at the Majestic.

The presentation of "Germany on the Piring Line" in motion pictures at the Majestic four days next week, is of unusual importance because it is the first opportunity those of German birth in this country have to see the war as Germany sees it officially.

The pictures furnish a birdseye view of the war and to view the 6,000 feet of films which make up the six reels leaves one the impression that he has really experienced a year of real service with the Kaiser's armies, fighting shoulder to shoulder in the trenches, marching over long stretches of snow covered wastes, charging the enemy, facing capture, retreating, taking towns, cities, etc.

Announcement has been made by Joseph Owen N. Henton, president of the Citizens' Trust company, that no successor to Frank H. Cutshall, who has resigned to accept the vice-presidency of the Old National bank, would be appointed.

INDICTED FOR HIGH TREASON

London Grand Jury Promptly Holds Sir Roger Casement.

BAILEY ALSO AS AN ACCOMPLICE

Trial of Leader of Sinn Fein Revolt is Set for June 26.

London, May 25.—(12:40 p. m.)—The grand jury today returned true bills against Sir Roger Casement, leader of the Sinn Fein revolt, and Daniel J. Bailey, the former British soldier who is held as his accomplice.

After a short deliberation the jury returned true bills. The judge fixed the trial of Sir Roger for June 26. The preliminary hearing before police magistrates at which Casement and Bailey withheld their defense and were held without bail pending the grand jury deliberations.

Seventy-five grand jurors were summoned before Lord Chief Justice Reading today and from their number twenty-three were selected to decide whether indictments for high treason should be returned against the two prisoners. Their decision was reached promptly. In explaining the law to the jury the judge stated it was necessary that treason should be proved by overt acts. In the indictment against Casement as it stood, he said, six overt acts were mentioned.

The court nominated Alexander Sullivan, of Dublin, and Artemus Jones, who appeared for the defense at the preliminary hearing, as counsel for Casement. It is understood that Prof. J. H. Morgan, who took part in the defense at the preliminary hearing, also will appear, but under the statute only two attorneys can be nominated.

Holman Gregor and W. T. Snell were named to defend Bailey. Thomas Scanlon, member of parliament and one of the secretaries of the Irish party, also will appear for him.

This creates an abundance of thick, white lather that thoroughly dissolves and removes the dandruff, excess oil and dirt. Weatherlogg is drawing the plans for the building, which, however, will not be completed for several days.

Most of the so-called chicory now being used in Italy is made of dried figs. It is said that dried figs are at least as good for this purpose as chicory, and are now in great demand.

TWO MEN DROWNED IN WABASH RIVER

James Harrop and George Young Lost
Lives at Wabash When Current Sweeps Wagon Away.

Wabash, Ind., May 25.—George Young, 69, and James Harrop, 40, were drowned in the Wabash river Wednesday afternoon, when the strong current swept their light one-horse wagon away and they were thrown into the water. The tragedy was first discovered when a woman residing near the river saw a horse swimming down stream. A short time previously she had seen Young and Harrop drive past her house and turn toward the river. Young's body was seen floating down stream near the scene of the drowning and was recovered within a short time after he had gone into the water. Harrop's body was not found until some time later. It is believed the horse began to mire in quicksand and, becoming frightened, overturned the wagon.

HOB0 HAD A STRONG BOX.

Auburn, Ind., May 25.—Town Marshal Dennis Poorman, of Waterloo, arrested a man at the New York hotel depot in Waterloo on suspicion of being a crook. Kenneth George with some other boys were fishing along Cedar creek north of the cemetery about noon and they noticed a man walking along the railroad tracks. The man left the track and near the bridge he began using a hammer and chisel on a box trying to break it open. When he had opened it he threw away the box, hammer and chisel. The boys hurried up to the town and notified Marshal Poorman, who asked the boys to find the tools and the box and in the meanwhile Poorman spotted the man at the depot. The box was a safety box marked R-11-0-17, issued by the Royal Trust company of Chicago. Poorman placed the fellow under arrest.

TWO TIED WITH HIGH GRADE.

Bluffton, Ind., May 25.—In an examination for rural carriers held in this city several weeks ago for the office at Ossian, the grades have just been turned to Postmaster Harry Hunter from the department at Washington.

Weds Irish Rebel in Death Cell on Day of Execution

MRS. JOSEPH PLUNKETT.

Married to her Sinn Fein lover only a few hours before he was led from prison to die in front of a firing squad, Grace Plunkett is the widow of the most pathetic figure that has arisen out of the wreckage of the Dublin rebellion.

On the day before Joseph Plunkett, one of the chiefs of the "Irish Republic's" forces, was to be shot on a charge of treason, his promised bride won the permission of the military authorities for their wedding in the prison.

On that same day she called on a Dublin jeweler and calmly selected a wedding ring.

She and Plunkett became man and wife in the prison at midnight. Plunkett was allowed to remain with his bride until four o'clock, when he was called away to be shot.

While forty-two applicants presented themselves for the test, only the grades of three have been made public, the two highest men writing to a tie with a percentage of 88.9. Forrest Woodward, a teacher, and John Linn tie, while Lewis Miller has a grade of 88.5. Others taking the examination, and living in Ossian, were Lester Henline, W. W. Fryback, George Hulsmier, Edgar Hunter, Roe Hunter, Wilson Snyder, Tom White and John Hanna. The others were from the country districts. It is rumored Forrest Woodward will get the vacancy on one of the routes leading out of Ossian.

CLOSE CALL FOR THREE MEN.

Bluffton, Ind., May 25.—V. S. Pease, Ernie L. Thompson and William Clark luckily escaped serious injury or death yesterday when the Pease auto in which they were riding was struck by an east-bound freight car on the B. & O. C. traction line at the Spring street crossing. Pease was unhurt and Thompson and Clark are thought to be suffering only from bruises. Thompson, who was in the back seat of the five-passenger touring car, was badly squeezed when the rear of the automobile body was crumpled in. Mr. Pease stated that he was driving at a speed of about twenty miles an hour when he approached the track, did not hear the traction car whistle and did not see the car until he was within twenty-five feet of the track.

CITIZENS SNORT IN DISGUST.

South Whitley, Ind., May 25.—Tax-paying citizens of this town are in a high state of disgust over the result of a practical demonstration given of the merits of a new chemical fire extinguisher recently ordered by the town board. A demonstrator came here to demonstrate. A rude structure of highly inflammable materials was constructed on the site of the proposed $10,000 Carnegie library and put to the torch. Then the demonstration began. It ended when the bonfire had consumed everything combustible, though the apparatus diligently squirted its quenching fluid into the flames. The only feature of the matter upon which the town congratulates itself is that the board purchased but one machine instead of two, as was at first intended.

BLOWING RED GLASS A SUCCESS.

Hartford City, Ind., May 25.—Although the blowing of ordinary window glass ceases at the Johnston factory next Saturday, it is expected that the tank will be kept in operation for a week after that time in the production of red or flash ruby glass. During the past few days samples of that kind of glass have been made so successfully that the product is considered perfect enough to ship. It is planned to keep the tank where the ordinary window glass is prepared going for a week so that more of the red glass can be made. It may be that during the summer there will be changes in the arrangements for the making of that kind of glass.

BLUFFTON WOMAN WEDS.

Bluffton, Ind., May 25.—Miss Sayde Burgen, for several years employed at the W. J. Kerfoot plumbing shop, left yesterday for Akron, O., where this morning she was married to Clifford Clapp there. She telephoned Mr. Kerfoot just before the car pulled out and told him of her plans. She was accompanied as far as Huntington by Mrs. Geo. W. Thomas and Mrs. Austin Allert. The bride is the daughter of John Burgen, of Stinesville, Ind., a resident of this city about twelve years ago.

Fourteen Senior Girls at University Announce Engagements.

Berkeley, Cal., May 2.—Higher education may be a foe to matrimony in some schools, but not at the University of California.

Little Dan Cupid, who has been doing research work here during the year, looks on the fruition of his toil with pride, while commencement gaities are at their height.

Katherine May Fertig, one of 14 senior class girls at the University of California who have announced their engagements.

No less than 14 senior women announced their engagements at a banquet held here as one phase of the festivities in honor of graduating time. This number represents only a small part of the romances which have budded and bloomed under the gnarled oaks of the campus during the school year just ended.

California girls are strong in their repudiation of the argument that a college education tends to prejudice women against ideas of marriage.

Children Need A Warm Table Drink

Many parents understand that tea and coffee hinder mental development and body growth in their children, but are puzzled how to gratify the little folk's desire for a warm drink, without harming them.

For years, now, in a considerable number of American homes, the problem has been solved by

Instant Postum

This pure food-drink is made of prime wheat, roasted with a bit of pure, wholesome molasses. It closely resembles the higher grades of mild Java coffee in color and flavor, has a delightful aroma, and is so pleasing that the older folks join the children in this wholesome beverage.

Where the rest of the family stick to coffee, Instant Postum for the children causes no extra work. A level teaspoonful in a cup with hot water and cream and sugar to taste, makes a delightful drink instantly.

THE WOMAN IN THE CASE.

This sketch was made especially for The Sentinel and shows Mrs. Margaret Horton, called "the woman in the case," as she looks in the New York court room, where Dr. Arthur Warren Waite is being tried on a charge that he poisoned his father-in-law, John E. Peck, of Grand Rapids, Mich. It was Mrs. Horton who shared a studio with Waite at the Plaza hotel, New York, where she says they studied music and languages. She will be an important witness.

was the first witness for the defense. He said that because Dr. Waite had a large head, the other members of the Waite family "poked fun at him."

His Life as Boy.

Waite as a boy was cruel to animals, developed a habit of lying and used to steal from boarders in his home and from classmates at school and college, according to Clyde Waite, of Grand Rapids, another brother.

On cross-examination Clyde Waite was asked by the prosecutor if his own accounts had not been short by $300 at the place of his employment in Grand Rapids. This he admitted and said: "I made the amount up."

"Are you still working for the telephone company at Grand Rapids?" he was asked. "I resigned," was the reply.

HIGH SCHOOL SITE NEAR LAFAYETTE PLACE.

Increased interest is being shown in the opening of the site of Lafayette Place on Saturday, May 27th, because of the fact that the site selected for the proposed South Side high school is but six blocks north of this promising addition. This fact and the ideal location of Lafayette Place, on Calhoun street, squarely in the path of Fort Wayne's great southward growth, with pavement running to the addition is responsible for the interest displayed on the part of scores of prospective purchasers of lots. For particulars see the Wildwood Sales Company, Shaff Building, or any member of the Real Estate exchange.

TEN THOUSAND SEE "CALIBAN."

First Performance of Masque After Two Years of Preparation.

New York, May 25.—More than 10,000 persons saw the community masque "Caliban," presented for the first time last night in the stadium at the College of the City of New York. The performance has been in preparation for a two years, and it marked the culmination of many Shakespearean celebrations during the tercentennial.

The masque was written by Percy Mackaye. Fifteen hundred persons participated, a number of famous actors taking the principal parts. The purpose was to arouse civic interest in a new form of municipal entertainment as well as in the Shakespearean drama. The masque was offered as the ultimate solution of the problem for New York's millions.

ADMITTED BY PARIS.

French War Office Conceded Progress by Crown Prince's Army.

Paris, May 25.—German troops made an attack last night on French positions on the Verdun front east of the Meuse near the Haudremont quarry and obtained a footing in one of the French trenches, the war office announced today. East of Cumieres to the west of the Meuse the French made some progress in hand grenade fighting.

There was no infantry action at Fort Douaumont last night. Activity on the part of the artillery was particularly severe in the vicinity of hill 304 and in the sector of Dead Man's hill to Cumieres.

MEDIATION HINT PLEASES.

German Would Welcome Good Offices to End the War.

Berlin, May 24.—Via London.—(Delayed.)—A wireless dispatch from the United States giving the substance of President Wilson's speech at Charlotte, N. C., in which he referred to the possibility of American mediation in the war, is given the place of honor in the morning papers. The afternoon editions return to the subject and their comments, together with the wide interest shown by the German public, show how important this news is regarded here. Though definitely stated nowhere, there is little doubt that Germany is willing to consider a tender of good offices to inaugurate peace negotiations. The former attitude in the highest quarters that America had disqualified herself as a peace mediator on account of her shipments of munitions to the allies, has now changed. If President Wilson can hold out any tangible possibilities that peace may result through his mediation, Germany will undoubtedly be willing to consider such suggestions as he may offer.

This receptive attitude is naturally subject to the condition that Germany is not jockeyed into a position of announcing her readiness to accept President Wilson's good offices only to find the allies later rejecting the tender and asserting that Germany is suing for peace. There is equally little doubt that the great masses of the people, aside from the professional hotspurs, would willingly see America in the role of peace intermediary, despite the persisting bitterness over the munitions question. As a matter of fact little is heard nowadays either from the general public or the press on the subject of American shipments of arms. The question seems to have been submerged by other problems of existence, which are of more immediate importance to the nation.

President Wilson's declaration cannot be said, however, to have made a good impression in Germany as far as the so-called "armor plate" newspapers like the Tages Zeitung and the Tagliche are concerned. Other Chauvinist organs take occasion to remember President Wilson with bitter and uncompromising phrases, and even a moderate paper like the I. Zeiger declares the president's first demonstration the impartiality of his neutrality by making good his demand for respect for American rights against England.

URNS AGAINST FRENCH.

Paris, May 25.—The tide of battle at Verdun flowed against the French during the last twenty-four hours. The Germans, rallying from the smashing blows which took from them the greater part of Fort Douaumont hurled their legions once more against the ruins which remain by courtesy the ruins of the Meuse. They also gained a small advantage on the left side of the river. Military opinion here is not greatly concerned over the result of the day's fighting. Such incidents are regarded as inevitable in the strategy of action and reaction upon which the stubborn defense of Verdun is based. The aim of the defenders is to inflict the greatest possible loss upon the enemy at the least possible cost to themselves. French counter attacks are expected to restore the situation by tomorrow in favor of the republic.

The occupation of the village of Cumieres gives the Germans a slight advantage to a certain extent it commands the French lateral communication. However, the village is so well covered by the French artillery that the Germans will be unable to profit to any great extent by its possession.

Inspection made by military authorities of the Verdun region shows that during the last month German gains on the west bank of the Meuse from Cumieres to Avocourt average a depth of 800 metres. The line eastward from the river is substantially the same as it was a month ago.

Franklin Smith Recites.

Franklin Smith the six-year-old boy who has been reciting on the streets and then passing the hat, turning the money over to the Y. M. C. A. fund, recited at the Thursday meeting.

The little fellow is in the second grade of the Jefferson school. His mother is dead. Twenty-eight dollars was reported as proceeds from an ice cream social given for the Y. M. C. A. fund by the following little girls: Julian Calhoun, Helen Scott, Dorothy Mossman, Margaret Keegan and Mary Crane.

The lunch Thursday was served by the ladies of the Plymouth Congregational church. The clock was posted by Captain J. H. Haberley.

Could Get 'Em Without Cost.

The purchase of "bricks" for the new building at $1 each by the school children yielded a total of $1,746 for the Y. M. C. A. fund. In one instance after one of the teachers had explained to the children the plan by which the pupils, by signing the brick-shaped cards and pledging themselves to pay $1 they would be aiding in the purchase of bricks for the building, a youngster stilled up to his teacher and said: "Why, Miss I can bring three or four bricks from home and they won't cost anything."

Out-of-town children had a part in the "buy-a-brick" plan as well as did the Fort Wayne children. Two of the former who contributed "bricks" at $1 each were Kendallville boys—Robert A. Henry, Jr., and Keith C. Henry.

NEWS OF THE COURTS.

Warm Weather Brings on a Bit of Stir in the Divorce Courts.

Married for thirty-five years and the parents of eleven children, three of whom are married and eight of whom are minors, Ella and William Spruce are in the superior court on a divorce action brought by the wife. She alleges that her husband for years has not properly supported his family, spends most of his money for drink, gets drunk and abuses her and the minor children; has struck and beat her to her serious injury, and has threatened her life. She wants the custody of the minor eight and $1,000 alimony. Spruce was recently arrested after making a feint of committing suicide at home with carbolic acid, and is now in jail. Colerick & Hogan are attorneys for the wife.

Short Divorce Complaint.

In just as few words as could well be employed to state the facts, Maude DeWolf says in her divorce complaint that she was married to George W. DeWolf Jan. 7, 1908, and that Jan. 10, 1909, he deserted her, since which time she has heard nothing of him. E. V. Emrick is her attorney.

Another Woman To Blame.

In her divorce complaint to the circuit court Rickie Raber complains that Fred Raber called her vile and profane names, struck and beat her and associated with another woman, whose name is omitted from the complaint. They were married in 1904 and have just separated. With The Secret of the Submarine The U. S. Can Defy the World!!!

Will We Own This Sea-Power Secret?

Thomas A. Edison, Chairman of the National Defense Board, is credited with following statement:

"To my mind there is no reason why an undersize boat should not be supplied with a fish-gill-like apparatus so that it can draw its supply of air directly from the water. Thus the lives of the crew will not be dependent upon the compressed air supply or on the ability of the boat to reach the surface. When this invention is perfected submarine navigation will be perfectly safe and secretive."

This American supersubmarine can strike even greater consternation among foreign navies than did Ericsson's Monitor fifty-four years ago! Will the U. S. again revolutionize naval warfare?

Second full page installment of this great serial will be in next Saturday's Sentinel.

First installment will be shown at the Grand theater tomorrow and Saturday.

RIGID RESTRICTIONS ON LAFAYETTE PLACE.

The opening of the sale on Lafayette Place lots for this year on Saturday, May 27th, recalls the fact that this addition is one of the best restricted sections of the city. Every lot has a building line, and the company has reserved the right to refuse to sell to anyone. Quite naturally this plan attracts the most desirable class of prospective home-builders, and as the addition is located on Calhoun street, squarely in the path of Fort Wayne's great southward growth, it must be regarded as one of the really promising additions to city property. For further particulars see the Willwood Sales company, Shoaff Building, or any member of the Real Estate exchange.

SATURDAY THE CALL OF TIME

Excitement Tense Among the Contestants Big Gold and Extra Vote Offer Closes Saturday Night at 9 P. M.—More Instructions to Candidates.

TICK, TICK, TICK, TICK, TICK! Every swing of the pendulum brings the close of the special gold and vote offer in the Sentinel automobile campaign, that much nearer; the minutes tick away and lengthen into hours, and only a few hours remain before the giving of thousands of extra votes and liberal prizes that will stop. Just two days there are, Friday and Saturday, and when the hands point to the hour of 9 p. m., Saturday night, the greatest special announcement yet offered during the campaign will cease.

Candidates throughout the Sentinel territory are watching the clock, for every minute counts with them. To bring in their new subscriptions before the closing hour means a jump in the vote standings that will place them right smack up where they can see visions of a magnificent automobile standing in front of their own door.

Also, those who have been plying their trade industriously can picture a whole handful of gold—enough to visit nearly all the stores and buy "dew-dads" to their heart's content; others can see their names on pass books showing tidy sums in the banks to their credit.

As the time is drawing nearer for the close of the special offer, excitement becomes tense; practically every one of the candidates is making a vigorous effort to be the highest, or at least among the highest.

In the city the young women are straining every effort to top the list; out in the other districts the contestants are calling their friends to their aid in order not to be outdone. Rarely, indeed, could such pleasurable rivalry be witnessed as that which is now displayed.

Every candidate who turns in, or mails, a combination of $25 in new subscription payments to The Sentinel before the closing hour, receives a special ballot for 90,000 extra votes. The only restriction is that the subscriptions be absolutely "new," and for fifteen weeks or longer. These thousands of votes are an excellent means of placing candidates where they become likely prize-winners at the end of the campaign.

The gold offer comprises in all $200, divided into four prizes, as follows: $100, $50, $30, $20. The highest sum will be won by the young woman who has delivered to the campaign office within the ten days ending Saturday night, the largest amount in new subscription payments to The Sentinel.

Second payment subscriptions may be included in this special offer.

That is where a person subscribed to The Sentinel at the beginning of this campaign, and the subscription has since run out, or soon will, a second payment thereon will make the subscription a new one. Such subscriptions should be marked "second payment," and the amount paid first.

Logical Treatment For Indigestion

A Harmless Method That Prevents Food Souring Stomach. Now Eat Big Meals Without Distress.

Practical Advice to Stomach Sufferers by a New York Physician.

That the widespread sale of digestive aids—dyspepsia tablets, soda mints, pepsin products and the like—is not only making us a nation of confirmed dyspeptics but is responsible for many other serious diseases is the startling claim of a well known New York physician who recently made the statement that there is probably not one case in twenty of so called indigestion that really needs pepsin or any other digestive aid to get relief.

The trouble with practically all stomach sufferers, says the doctor, is not a lack of the digestive juices, which pepsin products unduly supply, but a lack of natural formation in the stomach of dangerous excessive hydrochloric acid which destroys the action of the digestive juices, thus causing the food to ferment and sour, producing poisonous gases and toxic products which not only cause the sour belching, bloating pains and distress of indigestion, but also bring biliousness, headaches, nervousness, general weakness and serious internal disorders.

The proper way to treat a disordered stomach is to neutralize its excess acid and sweeten the stomach contents so that the digestive juices can do their work naturally and without causing discomfort. Never take large quantities of soda or soda tablets to neutralize acid as soda liberates carbonic acid gas which, added to the gas already in the stomach, may distend the stomach walls, causing very serious trouble.

To my mind there is nothing better to neutralize excess stomach acid, and to sweeten a sour stomach than plain bisulphated magnesia taken in teaspoonful doses in a fourth glass of water after meals. Magnesia in the bisulphated form will neutralize almost four times as much acid as soda and does not harm the stomach like soda, being indeed very soothing and healing to the delicate inflamed membranes both of the stomach and in the intestines. Even in the worst cases this simple treatment will in many instances give relief in from one to five minutes and its use is entirely safe.

In event of chronic, persistent trouble, most after meals, get 10 cents worth of bisulphated carbonate and take half a teaspoonful in water before meals and then after eating take the bisulphated magnesia as directed above. Do not continue the bisulphated carbonate more than three days, however, as its continued use would cause constipation. But the use of bisulphated magnesia can be continued indefinitely and it is absolutely harmless and a person afflicted with acid stomach should eat a meal without it.

Leading druggists everywhere can supply the pure bisulphated magnesia in sealed packages and it should always be obtained in the bisulphated form. Other forms of magnesia are valuable as laxatives and mouth washes but bisulphated magnesia is the proper form for correction of stomach acidity.—Advertisement.

LOCAL RACING SEASON STARTS NEXT WEEK

FIRST MEET OF THE YEAR TO BE STAGED MEMORIAL DAY BY DRIVING CLUB

The local harness racing season, and a season which promises to be the best since the days of the old Centerville stables when Fort Wayne was on the Grand circuit, will start here next Tuesday afternoon with a splendid Memorial day card. The show starts at 1 o'clock and there will be a long list of events, including not only local and Allen county horses, but there also will be starts from other stables throughout northern Indiana and Ohio. The program has not quite been completed, but it will be cleaned up within another twenty-four hours. Last year the Fort Wayne Amateur Driving club held a number of very successful meets and the prospects for this year are even brighter.

MR. COLLAMORE IS THE POPULAR BIRD

Toledo, O., May 25.—Officials of the Toledo American association baseball club announced last night that the case of Pitcher Alvin Collamore is up to the national commission for a ruling. Collamore, who was sent here from the Cleveland American league club, was supposed to make an early showing. Manager Brennan claims he failed to do so. Collamore was sent back to Cleveland but his return was refused. Collamore at present is playing independent baseball.

KLENKE OUTPOINTED AT MOOSE SHOW

Young Klenke, of this city, was outpointed in a ten-round go with Johnny Newton, of Ottawa, O., at the Moose lodge rooms last night, and Harry Henry had a very slight shade over Battling Hess, of this city. McHenry fought hard and was the aggressor, and thereby wins the shade. Hess looked good to the house, though, and will step up with the best of them if he gets the right training and management. Will Gaffney refereed the show.

NINETY THOUSAND FANS WILL SWARM INDIANAPOLIS SPEEDWAY FOR MEMORIAL DAY MOTOR GRIND.

(By Harold Johnson.)
Death defying speed demons will celebrate Memorial day at Indianapolis by striving to decorate racing record books with new marks for long distance motor driving in the sixth annual sweepstakes. Thirty pilots, thirty mechanics and thirty high-powered machines will face the starting flag Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. Racing men say the winner should be known before 5 o'clock. Ralph DePalma, winner of the 1915 grind, is the only absentee from a field of toplineers, his failure to get his car rebuilt in time preventing the Brooklynite from competing.

Last year DePalma and Dario Resta fought it out, with the former averaging 89.84 miles per hour for the 500 miles. Since then speedway officials shortened the distance to 300 miles. Goux and Thomas, former winners, are fighting for France and cannot drive this year, but a British soldier, Josef Christensen, and a driver must change the position of his teammate, will handle Sunbeam cars shipped from London.

The reduction in length of the race should spell greater speed for the drivers will go faster from the start, knowing they can save 200 miles wear on their cars.
The Hoosier speedway is a brick-paved oval, two and one-half miles around, has four high banked curves and two long straightaways. To encircle the track once a driver must change the position of his car eight times.
Barney Oldfield, dean of the American speed pilots, is billed to make his last race here and will appear at the wheel of a $15,000 Delage presented him by Dave Joyce, Chicago millionaire. Oldfield and Resta are favorites in the early betting. Others doped to run in the front rank are Eddie Rickenbacker, Christensen, Gil Anderson and Eddie O'Donnell.

Attendance records are doomed, according to the officials, who have arranged to accommodate 90,000 spectators.

IT'S GOING TO BE ONE AWFUL BATTLE

Or Else the Press Agents Are Stringing the Deer Peepul.

Indianapolis, May 25.—While Jack Dillon was in Buffalo playing for ten rounds with Bob Devere, the young New York heavyweight, Gunboat Smith was putting in some hard licks for his bout with the Hoosier at Indianapolis. Smith will continue his hard work for several days yet, then will begin to taper off for the contest which will be staged in Federal park on next Monday night.
The Gunner worked harder yesterday than he has since he began his training here. Several times he stung his negro sparring partner with his punches and was forced to slow up. It takes a husky boy to train the New Yorker, who has one of the hardest punches of any boxer in the game. His judgment of distance, his footwork and his defensive boxing yesterday proved to the crowd of boxing fans who saw him work out that he is in great condition and ready to give Jack Dillon ten rounds of the fastest work he has had for some time.

GIRL, 16, A PYROMANIAC.

Columbus, Ohio, May 25.—State fire marshal office officials regard a sixteen-year-old girl of near Van Wert, committed to the Girls' Industrial home, Delaware, for causing a number of fires, as the most pronounced juvenile pyromaniac ever found by the department.
She seems to be normal in every respect except on the subject of fires. She admitted that she had set fire a dozen times to the house of the family with which she lived. Assistant Fire Marshal Charles Miller was sent to investigate the cause of the fires and upon her arrival at the community he found another fire in progress. It was at the home of the mother and stepfather of the girl, to which she had gone from the other house, where so many fires had occurred.
Miller questioned her and finally obtained a confession. She said that she could not resist the impulse to start a fire. She has been working around at different farm houses since she was eleven years old.

When he returned from the afternoon performance lock, chain and automobile were gone. The police here believe the car was taken to a small town in Illinois and sold.

JUVENILE COMPOSER DIRECTS ORCHESTRA

California Boy of Ten is Attaining Fame at an Early Age.

San Francisco, Cal., May 25.—The honor of being the youngest composer to conduct a symphony orchestra through a rendition of his own musical composition.

Winthrop Sargent, juvenile orchestra leader.

tion has been attained by Winthrop Sargent, 10 years old.
After frequent attendance at symphony concerts here, the boy told his music teacher that he would like to write a symphony. He was encouraged to try it. Later he surprised musicians by displaying the full score of his composition, entitled "Legend of the Black Forest."
The San Francisco People's orchestra had announced that it would give local composers the privilege of presenting their own work to the public. Since Winthrop was the first to apply, he was given his opportunity. His direction of the orchestra attracted a large audience at a recent Sunday afternoon concert in the exposition auditorium.
Winthrop is a schoolboy, attending the grammar grade section of the San Francisco State Normal. He is endowed with a love for music far beyond his years.

MORE AMATEURS HAVE DESERTED OLD CAMP

Cleveland, O., May 25.—President Clayton C. Townes, of the newly organized National Amateur Baseball Federation, an offshoot of the National Amateur Baseball association, announced today that amateur organizations in two more cities had deserted the older association for the new federation. The two cities which have left the rival camp are Columbus, O., and Omaha, Neb.
Townes says there are now nineteen cities represented in the new organization and that this is greatly in excess of the number remaining loyal to the old association of which E. C. Heaton, of Chicago, is president.

Daughter and Father, Whom She Believed Dead, Spend Day Together.
Washington, Ind., May 25.—Mrs. Louis Lents and her father, Paul Bradlam, were reunited Monday after Mrs. Lents for twenty years had believed he was dead. Mrs. Lents was only six weeks old when her mother died and she was adopted by the Rev. H. C. Ellis, of Washington. From that time until Monday she never had seen her father, and as she never had heard from him she supposed him dead. Mr. Bradlam had been in Rochester, Ill., since his family of five children was separated. He was here Monday on business and found his daughter.

TAPS SOUND FOR RUCKER AND WALSH, ADDING TWO NEW MEMBERS TO THE LEAGUE OF FORMER GREATS.

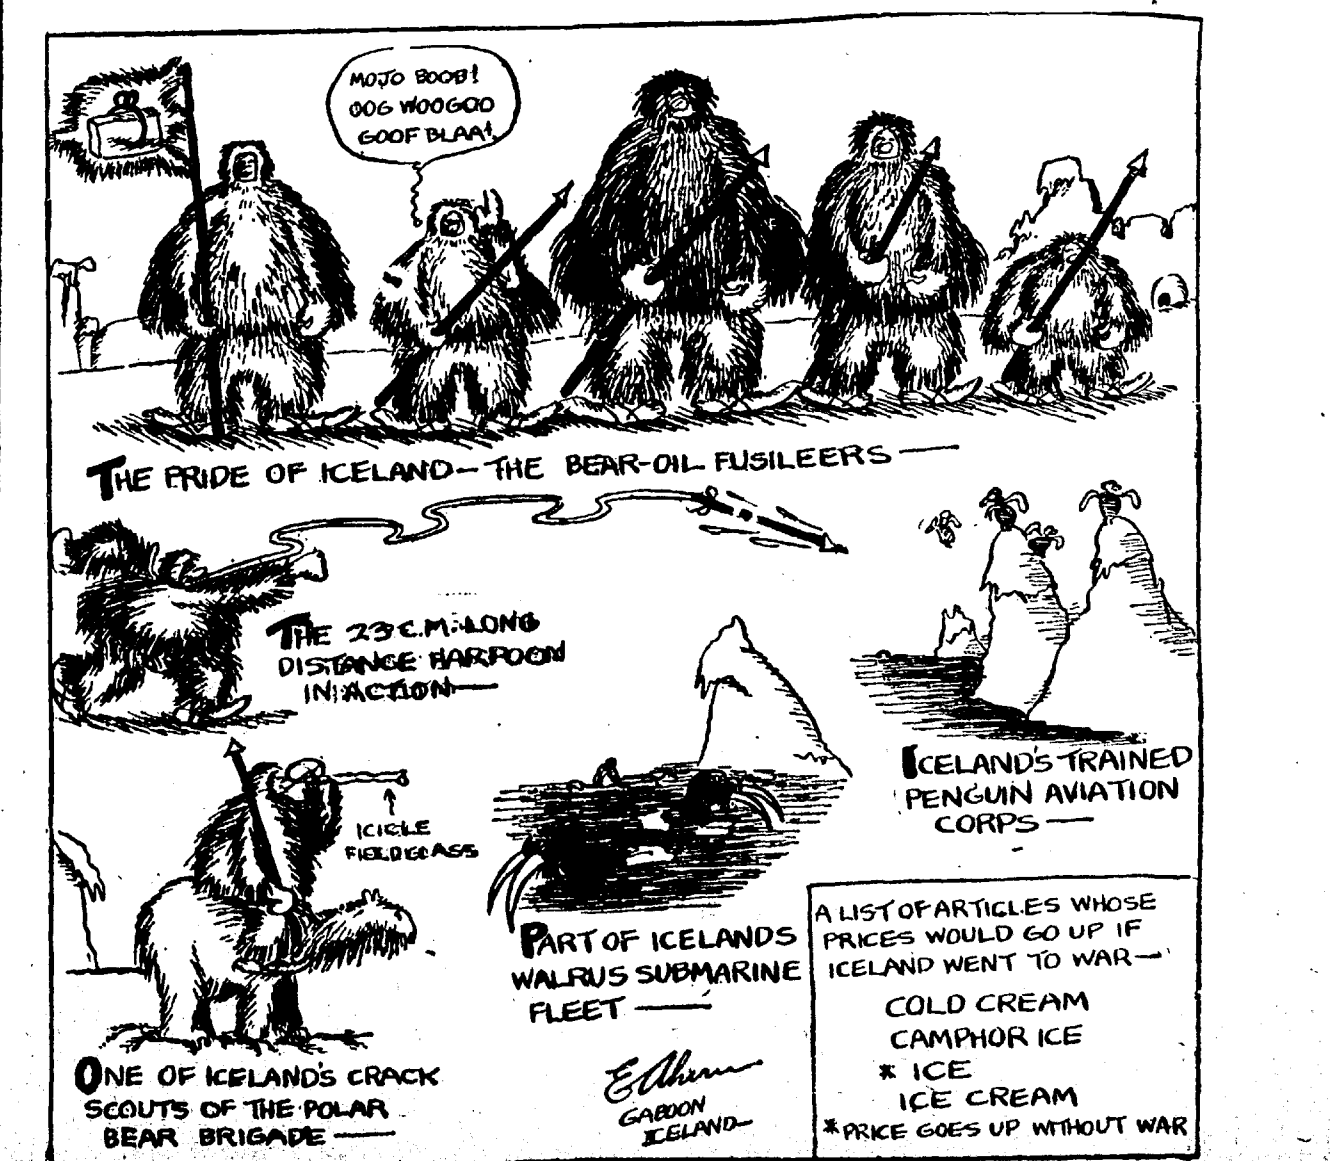

One by one they're going back! Donlin, Bresnahan, Hofman and Sullivan, Isbell, Bradley, Coughlin and Mullin and the host of other former greats will soon welcome new members into the has-been society.
Applications are now in from Napoleon Rucker, Brooklyn's once peerless southpaw, and Big Ed Walsh, of the White Sox, once master spitball artist, according to reports from the east.
Walsh's mighty arm has worked its last miracle in major company. The iron man is slated for an umpire's berth and next season may hear him calling balls and strikes in the American league.
Rucker has been placed on the disability list by Manager Robison. Just a few days ago he went in against the Giants. The old cunning was not there. The drop ball that made him famous was not in evidence. There was no zip to his fast one. He was knocked from the mound.
Rucker will never play minor league ball. He is interested in a plantation in Georgia, and plans to devote his future to growing cotton. Walsh has been a White Sox for thirteen years. His arm failed him in the spring of 1913. Rucker joined the Dodgers in 1907.
Both are of the highest type of men in baseball and their passing will be genuinely mourned by the fan public and army of players.

PLAN FOR THE GOLDEN JUBILEE ANNIVERSARY

Sacred Heart Academy Will Observe Event on June Thirtieth.

Preparations for the most notable celebration in its history are being planned for the golden jubilee anniversary of Sacred Heart academy, which will be observed on June 13 in connection with the annual commencement exercises which will be given at the academy, instead of at the Majestic theater, as has been the custom the past few years.

The anniversary of its fiftieth year will be a home coming event and all former students of the academy will be invited to attend the observance. So widespread has been the attendance at the school that invitations are now hurrying to all points of the compass. Former students in the west, east, north and south are all welcomed home.

As a fitting prelude to the golden jubilee observances, services will be held in the chapel of the school at 9 o'clock. It had been planned to have Bishop Alenard celebrate solemn pontifical mass on this occasion, but due to the fact that the prelate has not fully recovered from his recent sickness, the mass will be Coram Episcopo, (in the presence of the bishop.) Rev. Joseph A. Lynn, the academy chaplain, will be celebrant and William C. Miller, master of ceremonies.

Diplomas and medals for the successful completion of the Academic course will be conferred on Miss Margaret Theresa Dillon, Union City, Ind.; Miss Matilda Marie Berling, Decatur, Ind.; Miss Esther Harriet Bloom, Fort Wayne; Miss Mathilde Ethel Michael, Chicago, Ill.

Following are the young ladies who will receive certificates for the commercial course: Miss Lavina Garnet Kibbourne, Miss Jane Mildred Henry, Miss Hilda Marie Arnold, Fort Wayne; Miss Evelyn Marie Zurbuch, New Haven; Miss Amy Catharine Gretzinger, Kendallville; Miss Lucy Bernadette Malicka, South Bend, Ind.; and Miss Ethelyn Rita Price, Payne, O.

FRANK COMPANY NOT LIABLE FOR DAMAGES

Decision is Made in Fort
Wayne Store Elevator
Accident.

Indianapolis, Ind., May 25.—If a person is injured or killed while engaged in "fooling" or "cavorting" or "horse-play," no compensation for the injury or death can be recovered under the Indiana workmen's compensation law, according to a decision given today by Charles R. Hughes and Samuel R. Artman, members of the state industrial board, in the case against the Frank Dry Goods company, of Fort Wayne, for the death of Alfred Neumann, a boy in its employ.

Edgar A. Perkins, chairman of the board, filed a dissenting opinion. Neumann, after he had been scuffling with a 15-year-old elevator boy, leaped into the elevator and was caught and killed. The majority opinion holds that the injury did not "arise out of his employment," because Neumann was playing.

GRAND JURY AGAIN AT SCHERER MATTER

Inquisitorial Body Gets to
Work on Township
Trustee's Case.

For the second time within a few weeks the April grand jury of Allen county went into session Thursday morning to consider the case of Henry P. Scherer, trustee of Wayne township. An accusation for impeachment was returned against Trustee Scherer in April.

When the grand jurors assembled before Judge John W. Eggenman Thursday morning in the circuit court, they were informed by the judge simply that Prosecutor Frank A. Emrick had some matters he desired to present to their attention. No instructions were given and the jury retired to its room, where Prosecutor Emrick laid the Scherer matter before them.

During the forenoon some witnesses were examined and in the afternoon, following luncheon, the jury returned to its deliberations. It was thought that they would be ready to report before evening.

Neither Prosecutor Emrick and his deputies, Byron Hay and John C. Hoffmann, spent much time with the jury, whose members were left largely to pursue their own way their own fashion. There has been much speculation as to the probability of criminal indictments being returned against Trustee Scherer for alleged malfeasances in office.

Although there is in Barcelona, Spain, a supply of electricity available for charging electric trucks and passenger automobiles, such vehicles are not to be seen there.

SECOND BATCH IN PAVING PROGRAM

Board to Have Resolutions
for 22 Streets, Including
St. Joe Drive.

The second installment of the 1916 paving program in Fort Wayne will be taken up by the board of works Thursday evening, when resolutions for the improvement of twenty-two streets are expected to be adopted. This list of streets includes St. Joe boulevard, which is to be paved from Lake avenue to State boulevard. From Lake avenue to McDougal avenue the St. Joe drive is to be improved under a special resolution drawn by City Attorney Guy Colerick to meet peculiar legal conditions created by the fact that it is to embrace flood protection as well as street improvements by the construction of a curb four feet in height along the river side of the street and that an assessment district to cover Lakeside and Forest Park additions will be created to pay for it. Two other resolutions will cover the remainder of the thoroughfare—one dealing with the section from McDougal avenue to Forest avenue, which is to be an ordinary paving improvement, and the other dealing with the drive from Forest to State, which will be of boue-catted style, with central parkways and fifteen-foot driveways on either side. The other streets to be paved are as follows:

Melita street, Harrison to Webster; Bass street, Hoagland to Fairfield; Webster street, Woodland to Fontaine; Grace avenue, Broadway to Fox; Lindley avenue, Taylor to Park View; Park View avenue, Lindley to Broadway; Swinney avenue, Broadway to Phenix; College street, Wall to Swinney; Carl street, Calhoun to the alley east; Hugh street, Hanna to Gay; Old Fort street, Lake to St. Joe; Lake avenue, Anthony to the city limits; Purman street, Warsaw to the alley east; Hanna street, Rudisill to McKinnic; Second street, Harrison to Cass; Fry street, Main to Boone; Garden street, Washington to Jefferson; Nelson street, Jefferson to Wilt; Jackson street, Jefferson to Wilt; Lavina street, Broadway to Rockhill.

The St. Joe boulevard improvement will complete an unbroken driveway around the Lakeside and Forest Park region by way of Lake avenue to Forest Park boulevard, thence to State boulevard and thence to St. Joe and thence to Lake.

The inclusion of the Lake avenue resolution for paving from Anthony boulevard to the city limits revives a project that was killed over a year ago. It will close an unimproved gap in the street between the paved portion of Lake and the beginning of the Mayville highway, which is paved.

OPPOSED TO ANNEXATION.

Property Owners of Westfield and Vicinity in Mass Meeting.

Voicing opposition to annexation of their territory to the city and threatening recourse to legal procedure if necessary to prevent it, about seventy-five resident property owners of Westfield and the region contiguous held a mass meeting in school house No. 6, Wednesday evening, and disclosed an almost unanimous sentiment of hostility to the proposal. Attorney Edward L. Siebold presided at the meeting. He is preparing a remonstrance to be presented to the city council against the annexation of territory north and west of the city. He states that if the council passes the ordinance over the remonstrance the protest will be taken to the courts. Attorney Siebold was elected permanent chairman of the organization that will carry the fight to the city council. But one property owner present at the meeting spoke in favor of the annexation.

Favorite Recipes of Movie Players

By Agnes Vernon.

For a dainty dish to adorn the table or supper table I know of nothing better than macaroni snow. It isn't hard to put together, and it certainly pays for the little trouble it takes to make, both in appearance and taste. This is my favorite recipe and I make it after the following fashion:

Crush with a rolling pin a half pound of macaroni.
Make a custard of three well beaten eggs and one pint of milk, together with a half cupful of granulated sugar. Cook in double boiler until thick and smooth, set aside to cool.
When cool, stir into this mixture a pint of heavy cream, together with the macaroni and preferred flavoring. Almond flavoring is delicious, but some prefer vanilla. Turn into freezer and turn until frozen.

The principal disturbance this morning overtakes the northeastern slope of the Rockies, where the pressure is below 29.60 inches. A high area has appeared over the Canadian northwest and another lies off the California coast. During the last 24 hours precipitation has occurred quite generally in the upper Mississippi and upper Missouri valleys, and in the northern Rocky mountain states, and showers in the St. Lawrence valley, on the middle Atlantic coast, and in the great basin. The weather is warmer than the normal in the central portions of the country, but over the greater portion of the Rocky mountain region and in the central and southern portions of the Pacific states temperatures are below the seasonal average, with freezing or lower temperatures in northwestern Wyoming and southern Utah.

Mary and Her Little Lamb

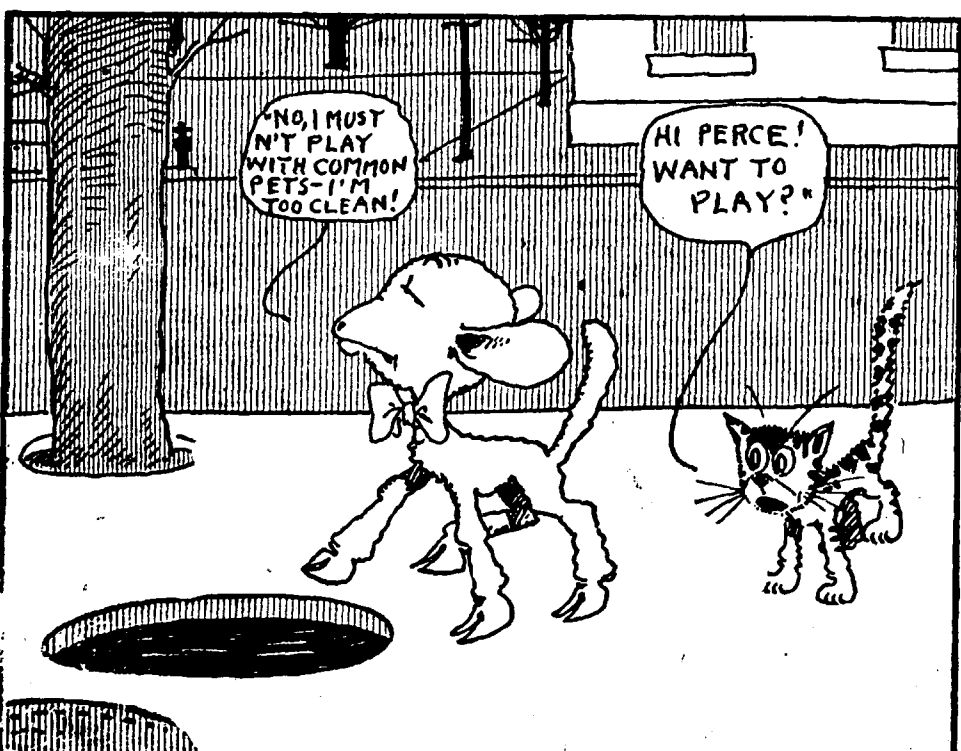

Tho' Mary's lamb was white as snow,
T'was hard indeed to keep him so.

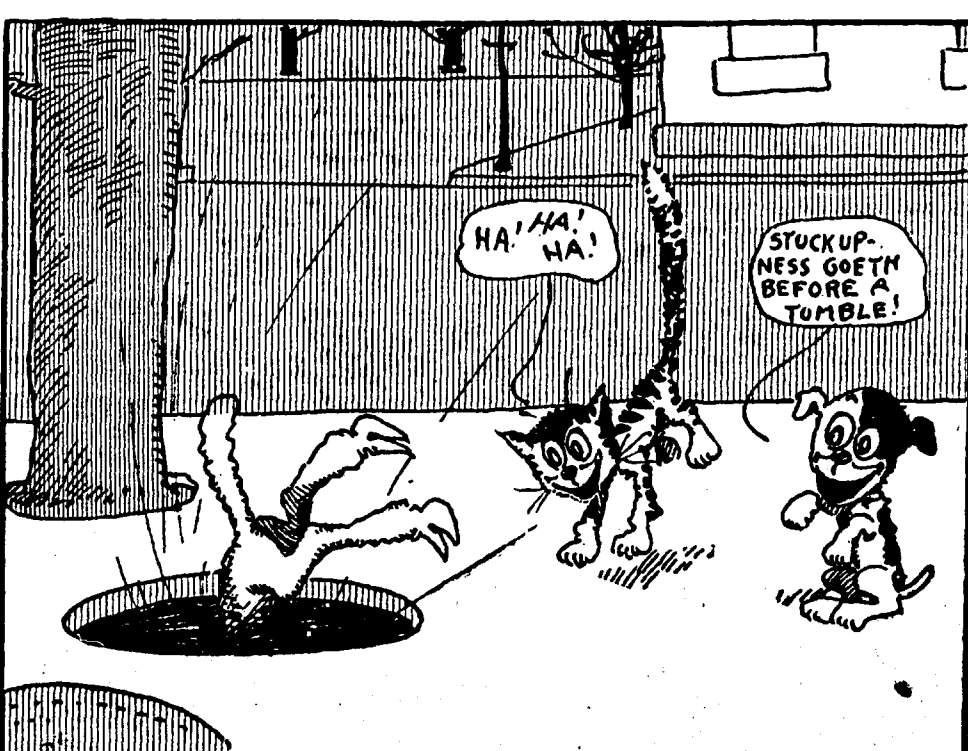

So when she sent him out to play,
She warned him to keep clean that day.

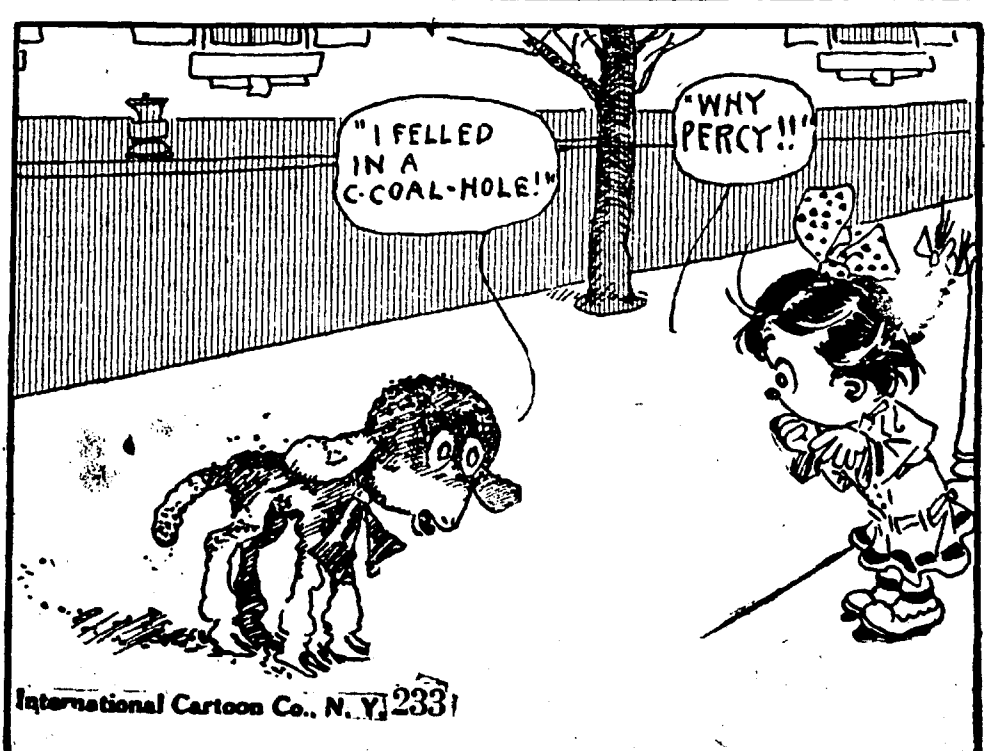

Thus Percy walked with head erect,
Nor deigned to see a common pet.

Because above he raised his eye,
The open hole he did not spy.

And as he tumbled out of sight,
The pets he'd snubbed laughed with delight.

With blackened face back home he came,
And wasn't Mary mad again!

THE MARKETS.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

Chicago, May 25.—Although hot dry weather southwest led to higher prices in the wheat market here today, the advance failed to last. Predictions of cooler temperatures and possible showers especially in Oklahoma acted as an offset.

The opening, which ranged from 1/2 to 3/4 higher, with July at $1.10 to $1.10 1/2, and September at $1.10 1/2 to $1.11 1/2, was followed by moderate further gains, but then by a reaction to below yesterday's finish.

The close was unsettled at 1/2 to 3/4 net advance.

Large receipts at Kansas City weakened corn. The warm weather was a further bearish influence. After opening 1/2 to 1c down, prices continued to sag. The close was nervous at 1/2 to 3/4 net decline.

Oats declined with other grain and as a result of liberal arrivals here demand was fair.

Lower prices on hogs carried down provisions. The most decided weakness was in pork.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET. New York, May 25.—Reading's further descent from its further high record was the most interesting development of today's irregular opening. The stock was offered in lots of 1,100 to 5,500 shares from 103 1/2 to 102 1/2, against yesterday's final quotation of 103 1/2.

There were large transactions also in Mercantile Marine preferred and U. S. Steel at substantial gains, with further activity in the motors, chiefly Chandler and Studebaker, while Continental Can was strongest of the semi-volatile issues. Declines in all instances were fractional and Reading soon made more than complete recovery.

The erratic movements in Reading, which rallied to 105 1/2, only to fall back two points, was typical of the general trend during the first hour, prominent war issues also manifesting irregular tendencies. Later, on a further demand for high priced specialties, the active list recovered in part or whole. Continental Can increased its gain to 6 1/4 points, Industrial Alcohol rose 3 1/2, with five for General Motors and 2 1/4 for Chandlers Motors to the new record of 105 1/2. Trading lagged for a time but the rise was resumed towards midday, U. S. Steel leading with an advance of 1 1/2 to 86 1/2 on very extensive dealings. Marine preferred also was very strong. Bonds were firm.

Reading made its low price of the session in the final hour, carrying other rails with it. Specialties also lost ground. The closing was irregular.

Baby Bonds Change Local Market

In the East almost all small investors insist on bonds because of their absolute security. A peculiar local condition has in the past made Fort Wayne people consider preferred stock more favorable and it took the Baby Bonds to convert the local market into a normal field again.

Baby Bonds are in $10 denominations, secured by first mortgages on local real estate and bearing six per cent interest. For further information call Wildwood Sales Company, Shoaff building.

IS GOING RIGHT TO WORK FOR CHILDREN

Ed Ries Gets Job at Dollar Per Day Laboring for the County.

Ed Ries, former skipper of a jitney that furnished transportation to ladies and gentlemen who started things at Poirson's chili parlors in the city and went to Hieser's roadhouse in the country for more latitude of convenience, told Judge H. Waveland Kerr in the city court, Wednesday morning, that he was willing to support his children. His exhibition of a tractable state of mind was an agreeable though not essential incident. He presented himself Thursday morning to hear delivery of the court's judgment on the charge of child neglect for which he was tried, and his heart came near popping from his mouth when Judge Kerr tagged him $10 and costs and ninety days at the county farm. Ries was prosecuted under the "lazy husband" act and will draw $1 per diem, which will be paid to his divorced wife for the support of his three children.

Wanted to Run Away.
Malone Thompson, who told the city court, Thursday, that he is proprietor of a restaurant in Van Wert, Ohio, and had come to Fort Wayne to combine business with pleasure, was fined $1 and costs on a drunk charge. Tony Grant, claiming to be a restaurant waiter and former employee of Thompson, went to jail in default of $20 to await hearing; May 30 on a loitering charge. The men were arrested Wednesday night by Detective Sergeants Walter Immel and M. A. Rindel when the conduct of the pair on Barr street aroused suspicion. Thompson went down an alley and when one of the officers followed him tried to run away. He had several blank checks of the First National bank of Van Wert in his pocket. Neither man could give a good account of himself and both were locked up.

Other City Court Cases.
Albert Runt, Ben Steenberg and Roy Longpre, three young men who said they came here Tuesday from Detroit to look for work, were tried on loitering charges.

They were arrested by Detectives Immel and Rindel, who had seen the young men on the streets late two nights. They were turned loose to either find work or leave the city.

The police wagon made a hurried run, Wednesday evening, to 625 Barr street, where it was reported a man had been found dead on the third floor of a rooming house. One Richard was found unconscious enough to be dead, but was merely thoroughly pickled. He was locked up and Thursday Judge Kerr fined him $1 and costs.

William Sprout, who made a bluff at suicide at his home a few days ago with a bottle of carbolic acid, burned his face and clothing, but did not scorch his interior, and then to a police cell, was up for judgment Thursday morning. In view of his wife's having just filed a suit for divorce Sprout was continued for a few days. He promised never to drink again if let go.

Henry Lorain, charged with disorderly conduct for starting a fight in a saloon several weeks ago and getting mauled, was turned loose.

Charles Ryan, a loitering stranger arrested by Officer Kavanaugh, was allowed to go.

STRAW HAT DAY TOMORROW.

Tomorrow we will make our first showing of Straw Hats and Outing Suits. It will be a wonderful display. Come in and see.

Nationalism, Mrs. Penny-packer's Ideal.

New York, May 25.—A step from nationalism to internationalism so that assistance may be rendered in a world-wide movement by women to "harmonize the nations" after the close of the European war, is recommended to the General Federation of Women's Clubs. Mrs. Perry V. Pennybacker, of Austin, Tex., in her report, as president, made public today at the thirteenth biennial convention of the federation.

"While we call ourselves the General Federation of Women's Clubs, yet we may as well face the fact that our foreign clubs are few and far between that we are in reality only national," Mrs. Pennybacker said. "On the continent of Europe and in other countries, little is known of the federation because there the great woman's movement is represented by the National Council of Women, united in the International Council of Women.

Points Only Way.
"Now there is only one way in which the federation can be represented in this international council, and that is by joining the already long-established National Council of Women in the United States.

"I will confess that there is a deeper reason that makes me so eager to see this brought to pass. When the cruel war is over and peace comes we shall find in the international council an organization that is ready for harmonizing the nations which are now at war—ready for calling back into wise common counsel women who for so many years were accustomed to work side by side.

Study of Latin-America.
Another recommendation made by the president favored action by the federation by urging upon the clubs "the study of the life and history of Latin-American peoples," and that the incoming board suggest definite plans for assisting the development of Pan-American relations. Recalling that the federation was, by invitation from the secretary of state, represented at the Pan-American congress in Washington, Mrs. Pennybacker said:

"Careful study convinces us that ideal relationships between the United States and the other American republics will never be brought about until the women of the countries more thoroughly understand each other. Knowledge brings understanding, and understanding brings sympathy."

The motion picture was considered in another recommendation, the president urging the convention to request the inquiry by countries more thoroughly understand each other. Knowledge brings understanding, and understanding brings sympathy.

"No question has aroused more interest among the homes of our land," she said. "We realize that this institution has come to stay; that it can be made a great educational force; that no one who is to share for the state of affairs that now confronts us; but we realize also that the average motion picture tends to degrade rather than to uplift the moral status of the spectator. Remember, please, I say the average picture. We want the co-operation of the film men and we should take no hasty step."

LOCAL BOY WINS ORATORICAL HONORS

Samuel D. Jackson Tops Debaters from Twelve Colleges at Muncie.

Samuel D. Jackson, graduate of the Fort Wayne High and Manual Training school, and now a student at the Indiana Law school, won the first prize of $50 offered at Muncie Wednesday in the state oratorical contest. Representatives of the state's twelve leading colleges were in debate on constitutional reforms. Theodore F. Thieme, of this city; Ross F. Lockridge, of Indianapolis, and Winfield Miller, of Indianapolis, were the judges. The debate was in connection with the conference of the Citizens' League of Indiana. Jackson devoted his address to the judiciary and the reforms which, he said, were needed. The pick of Indiana's college orators were in competition, and the honor is a high one for the local young man.

When a student at the Fort Wayne high school, young Jackson lived with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Jackson, of Delta avenue, and was one of the organizers of the school debating society. At the local school he won a number of debates and oratorical contests, and represented Fort Wayne high school at the northern Indiana high school debate two years ago. He entered the law school as soon as he was graduated from the high school and is employed in vacation season at Meyer Bros. Drug company.

NEW EXPOSITION BUILDING FALLS

Structure on Ball Park Ground Collapses, Injuring One.

One of the buildings on the Fort Wayne exposition grounds on North Calhoun street collapsed shortly after 1 o'clock Thursday afternoon, throwing M. G. Preston from the roof and injuring his back and arm. The building was not yet completed, and it is thought that insufficient bracing caused the accident.

About 100 feet of the structure collapsed and Preston was thrown into the mass of broken timbers. Superintendent Delegrange was not on the grounds at the time, but other workmen carried Preston to the office building and administered first aid until the arrival of Dr. E. J. McOscar. The man's home is at Harlan and he has been rooming in the Foellinger block.

Dr. McOscar found that his injuries were not of an extremely serious nature, but Preston will be laid up for some time.

NEW MOVEMENT OF AMERICAN TROOPS

Columbus, N. M., May 25.—A new movement of American troops along Gen. J. J. Pershing's line of communication was reported here today. The movements made within the last forty-eight hours were said to offset the redistribution of certain Carranza commands, but no details were available at military headquarters and it was pointed out any movements under way were minor and do not affect the general expeditionary policy.

A quantity of shrapnel and other ammunition which arrived here from the front Monday, today was sent back. It was explained that the shipment had been consigned from Namiqipa to Colonia Dublan, but through a mistake was carried through to Columbus.

Several cavalry patrols are scouting through the Namiqipa district, according to fragmentary reports reaching here.

INSANITY PLEA IS PUT FORWARD

Early Life of Accused Dentist is Sketched by His Brother.

New York, May 25.—The fight to save Dr. Arthur Warren Waite from the electric chair began today before Justice Shearn in the criminal branch of the supreme court. The prosecution closed its case yesterday and this morning Walter R. Deuel, counsel for Dr. Waite, began his opening address for the defense. Mr. Deuel said he expected to finish the case for the defense by Friday night.

Attendance at the trial was somewhat decreased today. Mrs. Clara Peck Waite, the prisoner's wife, sat near the jury box partly hidden from the gaze of the spectators. Miss Elizabeth B. Harwick, who sent the "K. Adams" message giving Percy Peck warning of suspicious of murder, was in the court room, as were also Warren W. Waite, father of the young dentist, and Frank A. White, his brother.

Of Unsound Mind. In beginning his address Mr. Deuel told the jurors it would be shown that Dr. Waite was of unsound mind. He also announced that the prisoner would take the stand in his own behalf. Waite's history, the attorney added, would show his mental weakness, while his father and two brothers would testify as to the prisoner's condition and concerning circumstances in his early life. Counsel promised to produce alienists to show that Waite's mind is diseased. Frank A. Waite, the dentist's brother.

MASS MEETING ON SATURDAY EVENING

Citizens Called Upon to Rally for Success of Centennial.

As a big final means of enlisting the people of Fort Wayne on the great success of the coming centennial celebration, the announcement is made today of a monster mass meeting of citizens to be held at the assembly room of the Commercial club on the evening of Saturday of this week.

On this occasion Donald Robertson, the pageant master, will deliver an address and others interested in the centennial features will provide the enthusiasm and information needed to arouse interest to the highest degree.

General Chairman E. C. Miller states that it is hoped that everybody who is at all interested in the success of the celebration will be present at this meeting, beginning at 8 o'clock. This includes not only the members of the working committees, but all others who are interested in the success of any department of the centennial event. It is hoped that hundreds will respond and that the meeting will be the biggest thing yet planned in the preliminary work of boosting the celebration. The ladies especially are invited.

When William E. Mossman mounted the ladder and pushed the Y. M. C. A. campaign clock past the $300,000 mark Wednesday afternoon, the hundreds of boosters massed about him burst into wild applause. Mr. Mossman is seen on the ladder speaking to the crowd just after having moved up the clock hand. "You have put me in the hole, and I'm glad of it," said he, referring to his pledge to give $50,000 toward the building provided the other $250,000 was raised. In the upper picture is seen a section of the woman's division marching on Calhoun street before the clock was "set."

4,000 ATTEND OLD SETTLERS' PICNIC

Anderson, Ind., May 25.—Nearly four thousand people are attending the all-day old settlers' picnic which is being held at Pendleton today, as the opening event of the Madison county centennial celebration. The day opened with the firing of a welcome salute, after which was a general gathering. At noon an old-time dinner was served.

This afternoon the old settlers, about 150 in number, and others from all over the county, are enjoying a centennial program. Charles L. Henry, of Indianapolis, formerly of this city, who built the Union Traction company line through this section of the state, was the principal speaker of the day. Friday and Saturday the celebration will be held in Anderson.

COURT ORDERS ESTOPS INDIANAPOLIS FIGHTS

Indianapolis, Ind., May 25.—On application of Prosecutor Alvah J. Rucker, Judge Moll today issued a temporary restraining order against the prize fight to be held next Monday night between Jack Dillon and Gunboat Smith. The order was made returnable Monday morning.

The fight was scheduled to be held at the old federal league base ball park and was to be the main attraction for the visitors, who will be here for the 300 mile automobile race to be held Tuesday. Mayor Boll, after a conference with a ministerial organization, yesterday declined to interfere with the fight other than to order strict police supervision of it.

LAST NAIL DRIVEN IN MAMMOTH STAGE

The last nail in the mammoth stage at Reservoir park upon which the historical pageant will be given in June was driven Thursday, and by next Wednesday Chairman Edward Miller expects to have everything in readiness for the opening at both the exposition and pageant grounds.

Chairman Miller is particularly anxious to have Fort Wayne citizens visit both the pageant and exposition grounds next Sunday and see for themselves what has been done and in this manner get an idea of the magnitude of the forthcoming celebration. One week from next Sunday religious services will be held at the pageant grounds in which all the churches of the city are asked to take part.

BOUGHER IS AGAIN TREASURER OF ELKS

Marion, Ind., May 25.—The Indiana Elks' Reunion association, at the meeting here today, selected Muncie as the place of the state meeting in 1917. These officers were elected: Robert A. Scott, Linton, president; Dr. J. C. Sawyer, Michigan City, vice president; Thomas D. Hoilan, Indianapolis, secretary; Frank E. Bougher, Fort Wayne, treasurer; H. S. Knight, Elkhart, ex-officio; John R. Roovne, Marion, trustee for two years; Ray White, Evansville, trustee for three years.

The parade, the spectacular feature of the annual reunion of Elks, was held here today and more than a thousand persons were in line.

Anderson lodge won the ritualistic contest over Muncie, the only other competitor.

METHODISTS WILL NOT LIFT OLD BAN

Proposal to Modify Stand on Amusements Beaten, 435 to 360.

Saratoga Springs, N. Y., May 25.—The Methodist general conference refused today by a vote of 435 to 360 to remove from the discipline of the church the clause which provides the penalty of expulsion for church members who play cards, dance, and attend the theater.

More stringent regulations regarding the remarriage by Methodist ministers of divorced persons are provided in a report submitted today by the committee on the state of the church. The church has never recognized any cause for divorce except adultery and has always forbidden remarriage in any case where a divorced wife or husband is living. By the proposed change the minister who performs such a marriage is guilty of maladministration and is to be held answerable to his conference.

The total abstinence by Methodist church members from the use of tobacco is urged in another report which states: "We record our solemn judgment that the habitual use of tobacco is a practice out of harmony with the best Christian life."

Polygamy and the social evil are condemned by the committee on temperance and public morals. The enforcement of laws prohibiting the former is urged.

Regarding the social evil the committee asserts that neither segregation nor punishment by fines is a remedy. The community should officially expel and disperse vice, it continues, and the state should provide industrial settlements for the mentally deficient and an honest place in society for those mentally capable.

Parents and others charged with care of the young ought to give careful consideration to the proper education of our youth to the end that there may be health of body, purity of mind and righteousness of life, the report concludes. Action will be taken later.

From now until adjournment early next week, the conference will be in practically continuous session day and night for the purpose of disposing of large numbers of proposals principally of a routine nature.

JUST A SUGGESTION OF WHAT'S GOING ON

Everybody Working Hard for Success of the Big Centennial.

With the opening date of the Centennial coming at a rapid rate, everybody is indulging in a rapid hustle to be ready when the first week in June breaks upon the people of Fort Wayne. Here are a few things which are engaging the attention of the hustlers right now:

Various organizations are meeting to make plans to enter the great parade of the opening day—Fraternal day—June 6.

Today the committee of ladies composing the council of the Woman's building is meeting with the chairman, Mrs. Fred J. Hayden.

The merchants, manufacturers and others who are to make displays in the Woman's building conferred today with the committee of the commercial department of the Woman's building to arrange for the spaces for the exhibits there.

The Centennial cabinet, at its noon meetings, reports progress along every line of activity. "There isn't a hitch anywhere along the line," says General Chairman E. C. Miller, "but I do wish the people of Fort Wayne would go to the booth at Wolf & Desautels at the earliest possible moment and get their seats reserved."

Applications for places in the band contest are coming in from a number of nearby cities and towns.

The construction work at the industrial exposition is transforming the place into a great exhibition area which will be a place of commercial and amusement supremacy for a solid week, June 5 to 10.

Hundreds of home-comers are sending in their acceptances of invitations to "come home" for the Centennial celebration.

Nightly rehearsals for the great pageant is adding finish and enthusiasm to the production.

The city is preparing for special fire protection at the industrial exposition. A new chemical equipment, in charge of six firemen, will be in constant attendance.

The Indiana Engineering Co. is making splendid headway in the building of the pageant stage and the lofty towers on the island at Reservoir park.

The women of the churches are doing a splendid work in pushing the seat sales for the pageant.

Scores of exhibitors at the industrial exposition are making special preparations for their individual booths. Some surprises await the thousands of visitors of Centennial week.

The fourteen high-class outdoor hippodrome attractions for the industrial exposition have been selected with care and on a basis of their excellence.

The decoration of the streets and buildings for the Centennial will be begun within the next few days. A full week will be required to complete the work.

The ladies in charge of the decorated floral automobile parade of Thursday, June 8, report many applications for participation in the event.

Parking facilities for automobiles are being arranged for those who come in machines from other cities.

Miss Muriel Larimore, in charge of the great "Ballet of Fort Wayne" in which 140 beautiful young girls will appear at the pageant, reports that the rehearsals have brought the dance to a high degree of perfection.

The stage carpenters and scenic artists have completed the scenery for the pageant. It will be set up at the grounds for a try-out during the earliest of the rehearsals there.

The Book of the Pageant will be issued this week. The price is 25 cents. Fred G. Church and the choir boys of Trinity Episcopal church will have charge of the sale.

Thursday, June 6, is "Fort Wayne Night" at the pageant. Thursday has been designated as "Society Night."

Special trains are being made up by outside cities to carry their delegations to Fort Wayne for the centennial.

The great Scotch Highlands band, the Mouschouet band and many others will join with the Fort Wayne bands in providing a week of melody such as Fort Wayne has never before experienced.

Many mail orders for pageant seats are coming in this week. Remittances of $1 each for reserved seats and $2 for box seats will receive prompt attention. Send remittances to Sam Wolf, chairman, Fort Wayne, Ind.

The automobile dealers will have a great show at the industrial exposition. One whole section of the exposition will be devoted to the automobile exhibit.

The home-coming committee wants to receive information of all places where visitors may be entertained during the centennial. Notify R. B. Garmin, Commercial club, city.

Harry W. Muller, secretary of the pageant committee, whose duty it is to keep the pageant east of 1,140 people in fact and to see to it that everyone is at rehearsal on time, is one of the busiest men in town these days.

Donald Robertson, the pageant master, expresses his entire satisfaction with the progress of the pageant rehearsals and with the preparations at Reservoir park for the presentation of the spectacle.

The bands of Indians which will be in the city during Centennial week will prove a big drawing card.

LESSON IN OUTDOOR SLEEPING

Miss Byron and Assistants to Show a Model Sick Room.

One of the most enlightening and interesting exhibits of the centennial week will be that in charge of Miss Irene Byron, nurse in charge of the work of the Fort Wayne Anti-Tuberculosis league, and a committee consisting of Mrs. J. R. Meriwether, Mrs. Charles R. Lane, Mrs. Joseph Lohman, Mrs. Fred H. McCulloch, Mrs. Van B. Parrine, Mrs. Fred E. Zollars, Miss Jena Meriwether, Miss Lucile Vail, Miss Italia Evans, Miss Ethel Doud, Miss Carrie Snively, Miss Kate MacDougal, Miss Philippine Schmidt and Miss Margaret Niezer.

The exhibit will be contained in one of the second floor rooms of the woman's building—the old high school on East Wayne street, where a model sick room will be shown. The principal feature of the room, viewed from the standpoint of the large proportion of the visitors, will be the out-door sleeping bed which can be used in any home.

The object of the exhibit is to afford a lesson in modern sanitation and health precautions. The model sick room will be in charge of trained nurses and so entirely complete in its appointments that it will be ready at any time to serve as a miniature emergency hospital.

INDUSTRIAL EXPOSITION.

The Grounds Present a Mighty Busy Appearance Today.

They're building a little city with all the mushroom features of a western mining town, at the exposition grounds these days. The large corps of builders is transforming the baseball park and the adjoining grounds into a great show place. The booths which will house the great array of exhibits of the merchants, manufacturers and jobbers are of uniform style and finish, a feature which adds much to the attractive appearance of the broad exposition tract.

The spaces allowed for the erection of the platform and apparatus for the hippodrome acts will soon be equipped with their paraphernalia; the exhibitors will be getting busy with the preparation of their booths, and when the morning of Monday, June 5, arrives the place will

Rehearsal Next Sunday for Introductory Pageant Event.

The spirit of the Fort Wayne pageant will manifest itself in large measure next Sunday afternoon, May 28, when hundreds of the singers of the city will respond to the foregoing invitation issued through the newspapers by Prof. William Milos.

Prof. Milos states that the members of the great Lutheran chorus and the chorus of the Catholic societies, as well as those of the various other denominations are giving a great deal of time to the rehearsal of the splendid selections which have been determined upon, and that the rehearsal of Sunday afternoon is for the purpose of rehearsing the choruses in which all will unite.

Episcopal Boys to Sing. The boys of the choir of Trinity Episcopal church will be on the program of song which will attract thousands to Reservoir park on the afternoon of Sunday, June 4. The boys' choir is directed by Fred G. Church.

It is announced that the program will open with the singing of "The Fort Wayne Hymn," by the combined choir of probably five hundred trained voices. The Lutheran division will then sing "Unfold Ye Portals," from Gounod's "The Redemption." The Episcopal boys' choir will sing "Gloria," from Mozart's "Twelfth Mass." The Catholic division will sing "The Heavens Are Telling," from Haydn's "Creation." The Protestant division or the entire chorus will sing the "Benedictus Chorus," and the musical program will close with the singing of "America," by the choir and the audience.

Donald Robertson, the pageant master, will deliver an address on the meaning and value of the civic pageant.

ARE WORKING HARD.

Steady Effort Will Be Required to Get Pageant Grounds Ready.

With only about twelve days separating the present from the time of the opening of the great Fort Wayne pageant, it will require close application to complete the preparation of the pageant grounds for the opening on June 6. Visitors to Reservoir park marvel at the magnitude of the task which still confronts the builders, but there is still confidence that the place will be in readiness in ample time to allow of the full rehearsals next week.

Rehearsals at Pageant Grounds. Beginning with the evening of Monday, May 29, the pageant actors will be given their essentials for the rehearsals will have received attention by that time.

When the rehearsals begin at the pageant grounds, only one scene will be rehearsed in an evening. When each of the six scenes has had a full rehearsal, the entire pageant will be presented in rehearsal for four full evenings, including Monday evening before the opening of the great spectacle on Tuesday.

ROBERT B. HANNA TO SPEAK.

Will Deliver Address at Dedication of Harman's Ford Marker.

One of the impressive affairs of the Centennial is that planned by the Daughters of the American Revolution, the dedication of the "marker" at historic Harman's ford. Robert B. Hanna has been engaged as the speaker of the occasion. The program will open at 11 o'clock on Wednesday, June 8—Woman's day.

The event will take place directly after the singing of the children at the court house, and before the floral automobile parade.

DEMAND FOR SEATS.

Sales Are Increasing Each Day With the Approach of Opening Day.

The seat sale for the pageant is coming along beautifully, and those who fail to get into the game while the getting is good have no one to blame if they fail to secure just the seats they would most prefer to have.

A large soliciting committee, headed by Maurice C. Niezer, met with excellent success yesterday, and a large number of tickets were purchased by commercial houses, whose members have deferred purchasing their tickets earlier in the season. The people are urged to secure their seats and make their reservations now, in order to avoid the confusion of the final days of the sale.

SETTLEMENT AT ONE PLANT IS PREDICTED

Western Gas Officials and Machinists May Get Together.

Early settlement of the differences between the union machinists and the Western Gas Construction company were predicted Thursday. An effort was made to be made later in the day to arrange for a conference when the proposed agreement submitted by the union machinists will be gone over.

Assurances have been given that the company is willing to submit to certain parts of the agreement, but never will consent to a closed shop. The company is also willing, it is understood, to agree to an average minimum wage scale instead of a minimum wage of 37 1-2 cents for every machinist in the company's employ.

The contemplated settlement at the Western Gas may be along the same lines as was agreed to at the plant of S. F. Bowser & Company. Mr. Bowser, the president, some time ago signed a bulletin agreeing to a schedule on a basis of fifty hours per week or five days of nine hours each and five hours on Saturday, time and one-half until midnight for overtime and double time for time worked after midnight and on Sundays and the six legal holidays. In addition to this the Bowser company had previously announced an increase in wages of 7 1-2 per cent to the rate in effect May 1. The company has also appropriated $10,000 to start a life insurance and old age pension fund.

Officials of the Wayne Oil Tank and Pump company declare that the strike of the union machinists has not interfered with the operation of their plant in the least.

George J. Schwab, secretary and treasurer of the Indiana Federation of Labor, is spending a few days in Fort Wayne. Besides Mr. Schwab there are four or five union organizers working in the city at the present time.

LAFAYETTE PLACE COMPANY BUILDS TENNIS COURTS.

Four of what are probably the finest tennis courts in the city have been laid out in Lafayette Place. One of the newest restricted additions of the city, which is located on South Calhoun street, squarely in the path of Fort Wayne's great southward growth.

These new courts are of macadam construction and are a part of the Lafayette Place company's plans for the improvement of the addition, which include the building of a $5,000 community club house, playgrounds for the children, a 210 foot street that will be called Lafayette Esplanade and will be the broadest street in the city. For further particulars see the Wildwood Sales company, Shoen Building, or any member of the Real Estate Exchange.

GEN. LEMAN SPRINGS OFFER.

Have, May 25.—5:15 a. m.—The German authorities have offered to allow General Lemman, the defender of Liege, to go to Switzerland, according to news received here. Because the permission was granted on the ground of his ill health and age, the general rejected the offer, saying that he did not wish to admit that he was unfit to fight for his country.

The delegates to this meeting were loud in their praise of the music which was rendered at the devotional services in the morning. Many declared that the choir of the local church was the finest in the diocese. Rev. Averill was complimented on his splendid work.

GARRETT REMAINS WET BY BIG MARGIN

Garrett, Ind., May 25.—In a local option election in which 1,000 votes were cast yesterday, this city remained in the wet column by a margin of 346. In 1911, when the last previous option election was held, the city voted for licensed saloons by a majority of 284. The temperance element had believed there was a chance to wipe out the drinking places and confidence was expressed that in Wednesday's election they would win. The campaign was marked by quiet working until the closing days, when both sides had speakers here. Rev. E. S. Shumaker, superintendent of the Indiana Anti-Saloon league, spoke here Tuesday night at the closing demonstration of the drys. The canvass of votes shows the following: First Ward—Wet, 241; dry, 72. Second Ward—Wet, 174; dry, 89. Third Ward—Wet, 255; dry, 167. Total—Wet, 670; dry, 328.

APPROVE MEXICAN POLICY.

Border State Democrats Commend the Course of the President.

Albuquerque, N. M., May 25.—Resolutions adopted at the state democratic convention here late last night approved President Wilson's success in guarding the honor and just interests of America and at the same time keeping the country out of the European war, and "his wise foresight in handling the Mexican situation." Twelve district delegates, each with half a vote, were selected.

IF KIDNEYS AND BLADDER BOTHER

Take Salts to flush Kidneys and neutralize irritating acids.

Kidney and Bladder weakness result from uric acid, says a noted authority. The kidneys filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder, where it often remains to irritate and inflame, causing a burning, scalding sensation, or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night. The sufferer is in constant dread, the water passes sometimes with a scalding sensation and is very profuse; again, there is difficulty in voiding it.

Bladder weakness, most folks call it, because they can't control urination. While it is extremely annoying and sometimes very painful, this is really one of the most simple ailments to overcome. Get about four ounces of Jad Salts from your pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, continue this for two or three days. This will neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation to the bladder and urinary organs which then act normally again.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used by thousands of folks who are subject to urinary disorders caused by uric acid irritation. Jad Salts is splendid for kidneys and causes no bad effects whatever.

Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink, which quickly cures bladder trouble—Advertisement.

WALKS AROUND AS WELL AS ANYONE NOW

Mrs. Agnes Irons, 54 years old, a well known Fort Wayne woman who lives at 704 Davis street, recently offered the following praise for Tanlac:

"For six years I've suffered with kidney trouble and for two years I've been bothered severely with rheumatism. I felt draggy all the time. I was bothered with a shortness of breath. Rheumatic pains across my back and in my left hip and limbs were severe.

"The draggy feeling began to leave soon after I started taking Tanlac. The shortness of breath vanished. I can walk around now as easily as anyone and the neighbors are all talking about it. The rheumatism also has been banished. The last year I've been practically in misery but I feel fine now."

BETTER NOW THAN FOR MORE THAN TWO YEARS

John G. Bertsche, a well known farmer who lives on rural route No. 2, Woodburn, Ind., sixteen miles east of Fort Wayne, testified recently to the relief he gained through use of Tanlac.

"For two years I suffered severely with stomach trouble. My kidneys also were out of shape. After meals I'd suffer with pains in my stomach. The kidney trouble caused pains in my back and generally I was in a weakened condition.

"I have taken only a little more than a bottle of Tanlac but the stomach trouble is gone entirely. I do not suffer with pains in my stomach now. The pains in my back due to kidney trouble also have disappeared. I'm stronger and better than I have been for more than two years."

GAINS FIFTEEN POUNDS IN FEW WEEKS' TIME

"I have gained fifteen pounds since I started taking Tanlac a few weeks ago," John W. Spangler, a machine operator at the Pennsylvania railroad shops, who lives at 2207 Hanna street, said recently.

"I had stomach trouble," Mr. Spangler continued. "After eating it would seem that my stomach was heavily loaded for several hours. I bloated easily. Accumulations of gas formed on my stomach. I felt tired in the mornings. I didn't relish or enjoy my food.

"My first bottle of Tanlac brought benefits. I have taken four bottles now and I can eat all I care for without a trace of the heavy feeling in my stomach that formerly bothered me. The bloating is entirely gone. I have a fine appetite now. Tanlac did me a wonderful lot of good."

AGED WOMAN FEELS RESTED IN MORNINGS

"I can't praise Tanlac enough," Mrs. George C. Gaby, janitor at the St. Mary Gaby, 60 years old, wife of James apartments, said a few days ago.

"I was bothered six years with indigestion," she continued. "The last few months it has been especially severe. Gas formed on my stomach. I bloated easily. Severe pains came in the pit of my stomach. I had severe headaches. I felt tired in the mornings."

"I'd been taking Tanlac only a few days when the pains began to disappear. The bloating is entirely gone now. The pains are gone from my stomach also. I can eat anything I care for without had after effects. I feel rested and refreshed in the mornings now."

NOTICED BENEFITS WITHIN FIVE DAYS

J. H. Murray, employee of the New York Dental Office in this city, who lives at 125 East Taber street, said recently of Tanlac:

"For three years I was bothered with inflammatory rheumatism in my limbs. My limbs would itch and burn and frequently would become swollen. The pain was severe. I also had pains across my back caused by kidney trouble.

"Four or five days after I started taking Tanlac I noticed benefits. The pains began to leave gradually and now they are practically gone. The pains in my back also are practically gone. I believe one bottle of Tanlac has given me relief from my troubles."

THANKS TANLAC FROM BOTTOM OF HIS HEART

Mrs. Willard Hughes, Fort Wayne woman, who lives at 2212 Foobey avenue, told recently how Tanlac benefited her husband, a conductor for the Pennsylvania R. R. Co. She said:

"My husband's system was run down generally. He had headaches and was bothered with spells of dizziness. He couldn't eat a full meal and he slept poorly.

"It is hard for a medicine to please my husband but he thanks Tanlac from the bottom of his heart for what it has done for him. The headaches and dizziness have been banished since he has taken Tanlac. His appetite is ravenous now. He sleeps much better."

SURPRISED BY WIFE ON HIS RETURN HOME

"I hardly knew my wife when I returned home recently after a trip," M. F. Woodward, a Fort Wayne contractor who lives at 721 Hanna street, said recently. "She looks Tanlac while I was away and she improved so much it surprised me," he added.

"Mrs. Woodward's system was in a general run down condition. Headaches bothered her. She felt tired in the mornings. She had no color and her complexion was bad.

"She gained strength quickly after she started taking Tanlac. She feels rested and good when she gets up in the morning now. The color has returned to her face again and she now has a good complexion."

BOAT BUILDER ADDS WORDS OF PRAISE

Herman C. Schroeder, 59 years old, a well known Fort Wayne carpenter and boat builder who lives at 1727 Wheeler street, has this to say of Tanlac:

"All this winter I suffered with muscular rheumatism in my sides and my right knee. I had severe pains over my ribs around my body. My knee was so sore and stiff I could hardly bend it. I couldn't walk more than a square at a time.

"The terrible pains in my sides and ribs are just about gone now since I have taken Tanlac. My right knee also is in much better shape. I can walk downtown and back now without any trouble. The tired feeling I formerly experienced has disappeared and I feel energetic now. I sleep soundly and my appetite is fine."

FARMER IS ABLE TO DO MUCH MORE WORK

"I believe I could go out today and do a bigger day's work than I ever did in my life," Fred Blum, a well known farmer who lives on rural route No. 15, Fort Wayne, said recently. "My good condition is due to taking Tanlac," he added.

"Kidney trouble bothered me fifteen years. I also had muscular rheumatism. Pains in the small of my back were so severe I had to walk stooped over. Often the pains prevented me from arising. The rheumatic pains also were severe, especially in my knees and elbows.

"The pains in my back, caused by kidney trouble, are all gone since I have taken Tanlac. After taking Tanlac three days I could tell it was taking hold and was helping me. The results I gained truly are wonderful and I believe Tanlac will help others just as it did me."

CONTRACTOR TELLS OF HIS RELIEF

J. L. Barrows, a well known Fort Wayne contractor, who lives at Lehigh's hotel, 125 West Main street, gave the following testimony for Tanlac recently:

"I suffered with muscular rheumatism in my arms and shoulders for ten years. My kidneys also were out of shape and for a long time I was in a very nervous condition.

DAILY BIBLE READINGS FOR THE HOME

Galatians 5:1-6.

- 1 Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage.
- 2 Behold, I Paul say unto you, that if ye be circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing.
- 3 For I testify again to every man that is circumcised, that he is a debtor to do the whole law.
- 4 Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; ye are fallen from grace.
- 5 For we through the Spirit wait for the hope of righteousness by faith.
- 6 For in Jesus Christ neither circumcision availeth anything, nor uncircumcision; but faith which worketh by love.

How thankful we should be for a spiritual religion—"Free from the Law, O blessed condition, Jesus has died and there is remission." These Jewish converts lacked faith's wings to rise into such spiritual relation with God. As a long-caged bird will not escape though the door be left open, let us not degrade our liberty into a license that imprisons in the material.

It Will All Be Needed.

Fort Wayne has never done a finer thing, or accomplished it in more splendid fashion than her achievement in raising pledges of more than $300,000 for a Y. M. C. A. building, and in reaching the goal full two days before the expiration of the ten-day limit set for the whirlwind campaign. Very wisely, too, it has been determined to continue the work until Friday evening in order that the fund may be further increased.

However generous may be the response to appeals from now until the close of the campaign, and however high it will be possible to push the sum-total of Fort Wayne's generosity in this endeavor, it will all be needed. The greater the fund at hand the more completely will it be possible to respond to the needs of Fort Wayne men and boys of the present and of the future. It was the very general opinion of those who recently visited the Muncie building that a structure of that size, representing an investment of more than $250,000, would be much too small for Fort Wayne's needs. The purchase of a location, central as it must be, is going to cut heavily into the funds at Fort Wayne's disposal.

Let us keep in mind past experiences as well as the city's future prospects. When the Anthony hotel was erected but a few years ago there were plenty of people who were amazed at the profligacy of expenditure and declared that it was little less than financial insanity to build on so vast a scale in a city of Fort Wayne's size. Yet it soon became necessary to make substantial additions to the original structure. Still later, when the Y. W. C. A. was constructed, it promised to be ample for many years to come. Yet today the Y. W. C. A. is badly cramped for dormitory facilities and is hampered in fulfilling to the largest measure of its mission because of this fact. Let us not again fall into the old error. While we are building, let us build adequately. The city has been stirred deeply to its duty on the Y. M. C. A. project, and while it is doing it it will not desire to do it in half-way fashion. Today and tomorrow furnish the opportunity for the crowning achievement in this splendid undertaking. Three hundred thousand dollars is fine, but $350,000 or $400,000 will be infinitely better.

By a strict party vote the senate judiciary committee has recommended the confirmation of the nomination of Mr. Brandeis to the supreme court bench. The decision has been reached after a contest that has been remarkable both for the fight made on Mr. Brandeis by his opponents, and for the smashing defense made for him by his friends. The active career of the Boston man makes it inevitable that he should possess some extremely energetic enemies as well as some forceful friends, and there has been no hesitancy on the part of either in making themselves heard. By this time the senate should be pretty well equipped with information on the case—information is what it wanted.

Twelfth district progressive chairmen at a meeting in Fort Wayne Wednesday selected delegates to the bull moose convention and voted their cordial endorsement of Colonel Roosevelt, deciding to stand pat for the progressive organization. And after all, if Colonel Roosevelt forces the Chicago republican convention to accept him as a candidate, it may be possible to demonstrate that the mountain has moved to Mahomet rather than the latter gentleman doing the traveling himself.

Senator Taggart made some of his distinguished colleagues gasp in the senate the other day when he delivered a resounding wallop on the dome of the rivers and harbors bill and declared he would not support any variety of "pork barrel" legislation. The new senator from Indiana appears to be rapidly getting a pretty clear conception of the views of the people back home and is seriously endeavoring to transfer them to action at Washington.

Now that Dr. Grayson, the president's physician, has taken a Georgia girl as his bride, the Washington matrimonial match-makers can indulge themselves in a few sighs of relief and turn their attention elsewhere. The attractive bachelor doctor of the white house staff has been claiming a good deal of their wholly voluntary endeavors for the past year or more.

Of course Mr. Koehler, with a fine and jail sentence hanging over him for violation of the liquor law, can go right ahead and apply for a renewal of the license for his South Calhoun street saloon in June, but the county commissioners should right now be rehearsing to get the proper emphasis on the "NO" with which to answer his request in case he still has nerve enough to make it.

And the house promptly struck from the Porto Rican civil government bill the provision giving the women of Porto Rico the ballot, which was slyly inserted by the jocular Mr. Mann, of Chicago. Somehow we rather expected that to happen.

2,000 HUSBANDS OF FEDERATION DELEGATES LONELY IN NEW YORK.

New York, May 25.—More than 2,000 men have been brought here from all parts of the country to the biennial convention of the General Federation of Women's clubs by their delegate-wives. And if ever any men felt thoroughly "out of it," these 2,000 do.

These men wander aimlessly about town while their wives are getting together on their own account. The men have formed "The Lone Husbands' club," an informal organization which holds meetings anywhere its members happen to find themselves.

The husbands are not in the least excited about whether Mrs. Samuel B. Sneath, of Tiffin, O., or Mrs. Josiah Evans Cowles, of Los Angeles, Cal., is elected president of the huge organization, which has sent more than 15,000 delegates to New York.

Their sole object is to find others of their own kind with whom they can "pal" while their wives are attending conferences and entertainments.

But do not think the men regard their wives' activities lightly.

"We're learning more about politics than we ever knew before," said one husband. "In many states from which these women came they can have almost any legislation they want. They are a real power. And the skill with which they engineer their campaigns within this organization is amazing."

WOMEN BUSY.

(Indiana Daily Times.)

In spite of the fact Indiana has been slow to give women the vote, it is worthy of note the politicians are inclined to accord to Hoosier womanhood a place and a part in political activities. For example, Indiana republicans who are working for the advancement of the C. W. Fairbanks presidential candidacy have taken proper cognizance of the woman vote of suffrage states and have arranged for active work by Indiana republican women at the coming republican national convention.

No doubt there will be several women candidates in the convention, hailing from states where women already vote. No doubt Indiana republican women, though not yet voters, may be helpful in reaching the women from other states who have won seats in the convention. Then, too, it needs the tact and winsomeness of women to complete the adequate appeal to the modern voting army.

Indiana women have reason to feel encouraged as to the outlook for the furtherance of the cause of equal rights in the state. The attitude of Indiana men toward the issue of woman suffrage is changing very perceptibly and with acceleration. It would not be surprising to see the 1917 Indiana legislature make wise and timely concessions to Indiana womanhood.

In the meantime the women who attend national conventions and take part in the proceedings as social and influential side-line factors may reasonably hope to impress on the men the capacity and the intelligent adaptability of Indiana women.

The Doctor's Advice

By Dr. Lewis Baker

The questions answered below are general in character, the symptoms or diseases are given and the answers will apply in any case of similar nature.

Those wishing further advice, free may address Dr. Lewis Baker, College-Bldg., College-Edwood Sts., Dayton, O., enclosing self-addressed stamped envelope for reply. Full name, and address must be given, but only initials or fictitious name will be used in my answers. The prescriptions can be filled at any well-stocked drug store. Any druggist can order of wholesaler.

with full directions, are recommended in all such cases.

"D. E. G." writes: "My rheumatism is getting worse all the time. I am getting so stiff that it takes me very hard to get around."

Answer: Do not worry about your rheumatism, as that can be very easily controlled by using the following: Get at the drugstore the ingredients named, mix thoroughly and take a teaspoonful at meal time and again at bedtime and you should soon be entirely relieved of that disagreeable disease, rheumatism. Purchase: 1/2 ounce of colchicum; 4 drams of sodium salicylate; 1 oz. comp. fluid balsam-wort; 1 oz. comp. essence cardiol; and 5 ozs. of syrup sarsaparilla. This has satisfied thousands and I am sure it will you.

C. J. R. asks: "Can I safely reduce my weight, and how?"

Answer: Go to a well-stocked drugstore and get five-grain carboline tablets in sealed tubes with complete directions. Take as directed, and you should soon feel the relief you desire. Many of my patients report quick results without any harmful action whatever.

Ellen J. asks: "Tell me, please, how I can increase my weight and improve my color. I seem to be anemic, weak and tired all the time."

Answer: Begin taking three-grain hypos-nutrine tablets with your meals and soon you will feel your strength returning and gradually your weight and color will improve. This is a most effective remedy if persistently used.

J. W. W. asks: "Can you prescribe a reliable treatment to get rid of dandruff, itching and feverish scalp?"

Answer: I know you can get instant relief and permanent results by using plain yellow minyol as per directions which accompany each 4-oz. jar.

Mrs. Belle C. writes: "I am informed that I have kidney trouble and that it is fast approaching a serious stage. What would you prescribe?"

Answer: If your symptoms are the usual ones, such as puffing under the eyes, swelling ankles, scant, copious or foul-smelling urine accompanied by headaches, pains, depression, fever, chills, etc., I would advise the immediate use of balsam-wort tablets, a very fine remedy for such difficulties, sold in sealed tubes with full directions for self-administration.

James J. asks: "For several months I have not been feeling well. My skin is salacious, my tongue is coated, have headache, am sleepless, nervous and bothered with chronic constipation. Please help me."

Answer: You need a laxative blood cleansing treatment in the form of three-grain sulphur tablets (not sulphur). Overcome the tendency to constipation and gradually your good health and pure blood will return.

"Poor Nerves" writes: "Is it possible to find a medicine which by its tonic or nutritive powers will bring the glow of health and ambition back to a man who has everything in the world but health and happiness? I am dull, forgetful, despondent, weak, trembling, short of breath and suffer more or less with pain in spine and back of head."

Answer: Your condition indicates the need of a strong, harmless tonic nutritive to restore nerve equilibrium, which in turn fortifies and strengthens the organs of nutrition, thus vitalizing the blood and promoting new cell and tissue to take care of the waste forces. Three-grain cadomene tablets, packed in sealed tubes by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed, it is no longer open, and the sound vibrations are intercepted. It is, in fact, a very simple case of catarrh of the Eustachian Tube, and as such, it is entirely curable by the use of the Deafness Cure, which is a small, simple, and safe remedy, and which will restore the hearing to its normal condition, and which will be restored forever, nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give one Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Pupils Give Recital. Many friends and relatives attended a recital of the piano pupils of Miss Irene Rolyans, in Elks' hall, last evening and gave encouragement to the endeavors of each one who took part in the program. The duet work was the best part of the program from the standpoint of accuracy and Lorena Rurck and Robert Baral, two children of much natural ability, received an encore. Every pupil tried hard and showed the results of study and faithful practicing and deserved encouragement. The audience was apparently pleased with results. Miss Gertrude Sivis, Miss Rolyans' most advanced pupil, played very smoothly Godevsky's arrangement for the left hand alone, of Chopin's No. 12 in C sharp minor. Mrs. Ruth Thompson, a soprano, with a very sweet voice, sang two groups of songs.

BLAZE IN A GLASS PLANT. Terre Haute, Ind., May 25.—Loss estimated between $4,000 and $5,000, was caused early today by a fire of undetermined origin which attacked the assembly building at the Turner Brothers' glass plant in the east end of the city. The building was razed and other parts of the plant threatened before the flames were under control. The management estimates the loss at about $1,000, but the fire department estimate is much higher.

INDICTED FOR HIGH TREASON

London Grand Jury Promptly Holds Sir Roger Casement.

BAILEY ALSO AS AN ACCOMPLICE

Trial of Leader of Sinn Fein Revolt is Set for June 26.

London, May 25.—(12:40 p. m.)—The grand jury today returned true bills against Sir Roger Casement, leader of the Sinn Fein revolt, and Daniel J. Bailey, the former British soldier who is held as his accomplice.

After a short deliberation the jury returned true bills. The judge fixed the trial of Sir Roger for June 26. The action of the grand jury follows the preliminary hearing before police magistrates at which Casement and Bailey withheld their defense and were held without bail pending the grand jury deliberations.

Seventy-five grand jurors were summoned before Lord Chief Justice Reading today and from their number twenty-three were selected to decide whether indictments for high treason should be returned against the two prisoners. Their decision was reached promptly. In explaining the law to the jury the judge stated it was necessary that treason should be proved by overt acts. In the indictment against Casement as it stood, he said, six overt acts were mentioned.

The court nominated Alexander Sullivan, of Dublin, and Artemus Jones, who appeared for the defense at the preliminary hearing, as counsel for Casement. It is understood that Prof. J. H. Morgan, who took part in the defense at the preliminary hearing, also will appear, but under the statute only two attorneys can be nominated.

Holman Gregor and W. T. Snell were named to defend Bailey. Thomas Scanlon, member of parliament and one of the secretaries of the Irish party, also will appear for him.

LITTLE INTEREST IN DUBLIN.

Dublin, May 25.—Astonishingly little interest is displayed here in the trial of Sir Roger Casement both in political and general circles. Casement was almost entirely unknown here before the war. Since then vague reports of his activities in Germany have been all that have reached the Irish public in spite of the fact that he was in touch with the leaders of the recent rebellion. As an eloquent in Irish politics Casement had no existence. The importance attached to his connection with the Sinn Fein revolt both in England and abroad is not quite understood in this country.

AT THE MAJESTIC.

Official German View of the War in Pictures at the Majestic.

The presentation of "Germany on the Firing Line," in motion pictures at the Majestic four days next week, is of unusual importance because it is the first opportunity those of German birth in this country have had to see the war as Germany sees it officially.

The pictures furnish a bird's-eye view of the war and to view the 5,000 feet of film which make up the six reels leaves one the impression that he has really experienced a year of real service with the Kaiser's armies, fighting shoulder to shoulder in the trenches, marching over long stretches of snow covered wastes, charging the enemy, facing capture, retreating, taking towns, cities, etc.

Announcement has been made by Eugene Owen E. Heston, president of the Citizens' Trust company, that no successor to Frank H. Cuthall, who has resigned to accept the vice-presidency of the Old National bank, would be appointed.

Y. M. C. A. BENEFIT

Tonight at New Palace to Boost the Building Fund.

Y. M. C. A. boosters, big and little contributors and hundreds who have felt unable to contribute in any other manner are making reservations for the big Y. M. C. A. benefit performance this evening at the New Palace. A flat price of fifty cents is being charged for this performance only and it is believed that a handsome sum will be realized for the Y. M. C. A. building fund.

It will be the first evening performance of the new bill that opened this afternoon introducing Jack Russell and Lotta Baker as the co-stars in the miniature musical comedy, "The Debutantes," to Fort Wayne. Mr. Russell, who is known as the Francis Bushman of the musical comedy stage, and Miss Baker are heading a cast of pretty girl dancers and vocalists in this fetching tidbit.

Class is the keynote of the Kennedy and Burt singing skit in which the story of engagement, marriage and divorce is told in a group of exclusive song numbers.

Bonnie Gaylord and Iva Lanton "Two Corking Girls," have a big laughing skit in which the natural humor of Bonnie Bonnie is given full play. Frank Ward, the newest idea in comedy, and Phil LaTosca, the famous comedy juggler, are others on this same bill which closes Saturday evening.

TODAY'S BEAUTY TALK

You can make a delightful shampoo with very little effort and for a very trifling cost. If you get from your drugist a package of canthrox and dissolve a teaspoonful in a cup of hot water. Your shampoo is now ready. Just pour a little at a time on the scalp and rub briskly. This creates an abundance of thick, white lather that thoroughly dissolves and removes the dandruff, excess oil and dirt. After rinsing, the hair dries quickly, with a fluffiness that makes it seem heavier than it is, and takes on a rich luster and a softness that makes arranging it a pleasure—Advertisement.

START DISMANTLING ARCADE BUILDING

Work of dismantling the west half of the Arcade building, on West Berry street, to make room for the new building to be erected by Harmony Lodge, No. 19, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, has commenced and will be pushed as rapidly as possible. The proposed new building will be four or five stories high and will be one of the finest lodge homes in this section of the state. The first floor will be leased to a mercantile establishment and the second and third floors will be rented for offices. The lodge will occupy the top floor. Architect Charles R. Weatherhogg is drawing the plans for the building, which, however, will not be completed for several days.

NEWS OF FORT WAYNE'S NEIGHBORS

TWO MEN DROWNED IN WABASH RIVER

James Harrop and George Young Lose Lives at Wabash When Current Sweeps Wagon Away.

Wabash, Ind., May 25.—George Young, 69, and James Harrop, 40, were drowned in the Wabash river Wednesday afternoon, when the strong current swept their light one-horse wagon away and they were thrown into the water. The tragedy was first discovered when a woman residing near the river saw a horse swimming down stream. A short time previously she had seen Young and Harrop drive past her house and turn toward the river. Young's body was seen floating down stream near the scene of the drowning and was recovered within a short time after he had gone into the water. Harrop's body was not found until some time later. It is believed the horse began to mire in quicksand and becoming frightened, overturned the wagon.

HORO HAD A STRONG BOX.

Auburn, Ind., May 25.—Town Marshal Dennis Poorman, of Waterloo, arrested a man at the New York Central depot in Waterloo on suspicion of being a crook. Kenneth George with some other boys were fishing along Cedar creek north of the cemetery about noon and they noticed a man walking along the railroad tracks. The man left the track and near the bridge he began using a hammer and chisel on a box trying to break it open. When he had opened it he threw away the box, hammer and chisel. The boys hurried up to the town and notified Marshal Poorman, who asked the boys to find the tools and the box and in the meanwhile Poorman spotted the man at the depot. The box was a safety box marked R-11-0-17, issued by the Royal Trust company of Chicago. Poorman placed the fellow under arrest.

TWO TIED WITH HIGH GRADE.

Bluffton, Ind., May 25.—In an examination for rural carriers held in this city several weeks ago for the office at Oshtan, the grades have just been returned to Postmaster Harry Hunter from the department at Washington.

Weds Irish Rebel in Death Cell on Day of Execution

MRS. JOSEPH PLUNKETT.

Married to her Sinn Fein lover only a few hours before he was led from prison to die in front of a firing squad, Grace Plunkett is a widow at 28 and the most pathetic figure that has arisen out of the wreckage of the Dublin rebellion.

On the day before Joseph Plunkett, one of the chiefs of the "Irish Republic" forces, was to be shot on a charge of treason, his promised bride won the permission of the military authorities for their wedding in the prison.

On that same day she called on a Dublin jeweler and calmly selected a wedding ring.

She and Plunkett became man and wife in the prison at midnight. Plunkett was allowed to remain alone with his bride until four o'clock, when he was called away to be shot.

While forty-two applicants presented themselves for the test, only the grades of three have been made public, the two highest men writing to a tie with a percentage of 88.9. Forrest Woodward, a teacher, and John Linn tie, while Lewis Miller has a grade of 88.5. Others taking the examination, and living in Oshtan, were Lester Henline, W. W. Fryback, George Hulsmer, Edgar Hunter, Roe Hunter, Wilson Snyder, Tom White and John Hanna. The others were from the country districts. It is rumored Forrest Woodward will get the vacancy on one of the routes leading out of Oshtan.

CLOSE CALL FOR THREE MEN.

Bluffton, Ind., May 25.—V. S. Pease, Ernie L. Thompson and William Clark, who were riding on the R. G. & C. traction line at the Spring street crossing, Pease was unhurt and Thompson and Clark are thought to be suffering only from bruises. Thompson, who was in the back seat of the five-passenger touring car, was badly squeezed when the rear of the automobile body was caved in. Mr. Pease stated that he was driving at a speed of about twenty miles an hour when he approached the track, did not hear the traction car whistle and did not see the car until he was within twenty-five feet of the track.

WILL FORM COUNTY MOTOR CLUB.

Kendallville, Ind., May 25.—Organization of the Noble County Motor club is to be perfected at a meeting of members and automobile enthusiasts Thursday evening in the city hall. Fourteen members have signed up in the new organization. F. P. Leaning, field secretary of the Hoosier State Automobile association, has been working in Noble county in the interests of the local organization. He finds much enthusiasm and has been promised considerable support. Those already pledged as members include A. M. Jacobs, L. E. Bowman, Lewis Goering, I. M. Kann, C. J. Munton, G. M. Patterson, Dr. H. O. Williams, Harold Pullman, A. R. Otis, L. A. Weinstein, F. B. Park, H. H. Macomber, H. F. Helwig and R. J. Keller.

CITIZENS SNORT IN DISGUST.

South Whitley, Ind., May 25.—Tax-paying citizens of this town are in a high state of disgust over the result of a practical demonstration given of the merits of a new chemical fire extinguisher recently ordered by the town board. A demonstrator came here to demonstrate. A rude structure of highly inflammable materials was constructed on the site of the proposed $10,000 Carnegie library and put to the torch. Then the demonstration began. It ended when the bonfire had consumed everything combustible, though the apparatus diligently acquired its quenching fluid into the flames. The only feature of the matter upon which the town congratulated itself is that the board purchased but one machine instead of two, as was at first intended.

BLOWING RED GLASS A SUCCESS.

Hartford, City, Ind., May 25.—Although the blowing of ordinary window glass ceases at the Johnston factory next Saturday, it is expected that the tank will be kept in operation for a week after that time in the production of red or flash ruby glass. During the past few days samples of that kind of glass have been made so successfully that the product is considered perfect enough to ship. It is planned to keep the tank where the ordinary window glass is prepared going for a week so that more of the red glass can be made. It may be that during the summer there will be changes in the arrangements for the making of that kind of glass.

BLUFFTON WOMAN WEDS.

Bluffton, Ind., May 25.—Miss Sayde Burchard, for several years employed at the W. J. Kerfoot plumbing shop, left yesterday for Akron, O., where this morning she was married to Clifford Clapp there. She telephoned Mr. Kerfoot just before the car pulled out and told him of her plans. She was accompanied as far as Huntington by Mrs. Geo. W. Thomas and Mrs. Austin Aliver. The bride-to-be is the daughter of John Burchard, of Stinesville, Ind., a resident of this city about twelve years.

Children Need A Warm Table Drink

Many parents understand that tea and coffee hinder mental development and body growth in their children, but are puzzled how to gratify the little folk's desire for a warm drink, without harming them.

For years, now, in a considerable number of American homes, the problem has been solved by

Instant Postum

This pure food-drink is made of prime wheat, roasted with a bit of pure, wholesome molasses. It closely resembles the higher grades of mild Java coffee in color and flavor, has a delightful aroma, and is so pleasing that the older folks join the children in this wholesome beverage.

Where the rest of the family stick to coffee, Instant Postum for the children causes no extra work. A level teaspoonful in a cup with hot water and cream and sugar to taste, makes a delightful drink instantly.

THE WOMAN IN THE CASE.

This sketch was made especially for The Sentinel and shows Mrs. Margaret Horton, called "the woman in the case," as she looks in the New York court room, where Dr. Arthur Warren Waite is being tried on a charge that he poisoned his father-in-law, John E. Peck, of Grand Rapids, Mich. It was Mrs. Horton who shared a studio with Waite at the Plaza hotel, New York, where she says they studied music and languages. She will be an important witness.

was the first witness for the defense. He said that because Dr. Waite had a large head, the other members of the Waite family "poked fun at him."

His Life as Boy.

Waite as a boy was cruel to animals, developed a habit of lying and used to steal from boarders in his home and from classmates at school and college, according to Clyde Waite, of Grand Rapids, another brother.

On cross-examination Clyde Waite was asked by the prosecutor if his own accounts had not been short by $300 at the place of his employment in Grand Rapids. This he admitted and said: "I made the amount up."

"Are you still working for the telephone company at Grand Rapids?" he was asked.

"I resigned," was the reply.

HIG HSCHOOL SITE

NEAR LAFAYETTE PLACE.

Increased interest is being shown in the opening of the sale of Lafayette Place on Saturday, May 27th, because of the fact that the site selected for the proposed South Side high school is but six blocks north of this promising addition. This fact and the ideal location of Lafayette Place, on Calhoun street, squarely in the path of Fort Wayne's great southward growth, with pavement running to the addition is responsible for the interest displayed on the part of scores of prospective purchasers of lots. For particulars see the Wildwood Sales Company, Shoff Building, or any member of the Real Estate exchange.

TEN THOUSAND SEE "CALIBAN."

First Performance of Masque After Two Years of Preparation.

New York, May 25.—More than 10,000 persons saw the community masque "Caliban," presented for the first time last night in the stadium at the College of the City of New York. The performance has been in preparation for two years, and it marked the culmination of many Shakespearean celebrations during the tercentennial.

The masque was written by Percy Mackaye. Fifteen hundred persons participated, a number of famous actors taking the principal parts. The purpose was to arouse civic interest in a new form of municipal entertainment as well as in the Shakespearean drama. The masque was offered as the ultimate solution of the problem for New York's millions.

ADMITTED BY PARIS.

French War Office Conceded Progress by Crown Prince's Army.

Paris, May 25.—German troops made an attack last night on French positions on the Verdun front east of the Meuse near the Haudremont quarry and obtained a footing in one of the French trenches, the war office announced today. East of Cumieres to the west of the Meuse the French made some progress in hand grenade fighting.

There was no infantry action at Fort Douaumont last night. Activity on the part of the artillery was particularly severe in the vicinity of hill 304 and in the sector of Dead Man's hill to Cumieres.

MEDIATION HINT PLEASES.

German Would Welcome Good Offices to End the War.

Berlin, May 24.—Via London.—(Delayed).—A wireless dispatch from the United States giving the substance of President Wilson's speech at Charlotte, N. C., in which he referred to the possibility of American mediation in the war, is given the place of honor in the morning papers. The afternoon editions return to the subject and their comments, together with the wide interest shown by the German public, show how important this news is regarded here.

Though definitely stated nowhere, there is little doubt that Germany is willing to consider a tender of good offices to inaugurate peace negotiations. The former attitude in the highest quarters that America had disqualified herself as a peace mediator on account of her shipments of munitions to the allies, has now changed. If President Wilson can hold out any tangible possibilities that peace may result through his mediation, Germany will undoubtedly be willing to consider such suggestions as he may offer.

This receptive attitude is naturally subject to the condition that Germany is not jockeyed into a position of announcing her readiness to accept President Wilson's good offices only to find the allies later rejecting the tender and asserting that Germany is suing for peace. There is equally little doubt that the great masses of the people, aside from the professional hotspurs, would willingly see America in the role of peace intermediary, despite the persisting bitterness over the munitions question. As a matter of fact little is heard nowadays either from the general public or the press on the subject of American shipments of arms. The question seems to have been submerged by other problems of existence, which are of more immediate importance to the nation.

President Wilson's declaration cannot be said, however, to have made a good impression in Germany as far as the so-called "armor plate" newspapers like the Tages Zeitung and the Tagliche are concerned. Other Chauvinist organs take occasion to remember President Wilson with bitter and uncompromising phrases and even a moderate paper like the Lokal Anzeiger declares the president should first demonstrate the impartiality of his neutrality by making good his demand for respect for American rights against England.

TURNS AGAINST FRENCH.

Paris, May 25.—The tide of battle at Verdun flowed against the French during the last twenty-four hours. The Germans, rallying from the smashing blows which took from them the greater part of Fort Douaumont hurled their legions once more against the ruins which remain by courtesy the title of fort and by a lavish expenditure of life succeeded in partially retrieving the ground they had lost on the right bank of the Meuse. They also gained a small advantage on the left side of the river.

Military opinion here is not greatly concerned over the result of the day's fighting. Such incidents are regarded as inevitable in the strategy of action and reaction upon which the stubborn defense of Verdun is based. The aim of the defenders is to inflict the greatest possible loss upon the enemy at the least possible cost to themselves. French counter attacks are expected to restore the situation by tomorrow in favor of the republic.

The occupation of the village of Cumieres gives the Germans a slight advantage as to a certain extent it commands the French lateral communication. However, the village is so well covered by the French artillery that the Germans will be unable to profit to any great extent by its possession.

Inspection made by military authorities of the Verdun region shows that during the last month German gains on the west bank of the Meuse from Cumieres to Avocourt average a depth of 200 metres. The line eastward from the river is substantially the same as it was a month ago.

The Secret of the Submarine
The U. S. Can Defy the World!!!

Will We Own This Sea Power Secret?

Thomas A. Edison, Chairman of the National Defense Board, is credited with following statement:

"To my mind there is no reason why an undersea boat should not be supplied with a fish-gill-like apparatus so that it can draw its supply of air directly from the water. Thus the lives of the crew will not be dependent upon the compressed air supply or on the ability of the boat to reach the surface. When this invention is perfected submarine navigation will be perfectly safe and secretive."

This American super-submarine can strike even greater consternation among foreign navies than did Ericsson's Monitor fifty-four years ago! Will the U. S. again revolutionize naval warfare?

Second full page installment of this great serial will be in next Saturday's Sentinel.

The fare will be $1.50 for adults and 75 cents for children under twelve years of age. S. A. Bickel, president of the association and general chairman of the excursion committee, believes the coming excursion will be the largest the association ever gave. RIGID RESTRICTIONS ON LAFAYETTE PLACE.

The opening of the sale on Lafayette Place lots for this year on Saturday, May 27th, recalls the fact that this addition is one of the best restricted additions of the city. Every lot has a building line, and the company has reserved the right to refuse to sell to anyone. Quite naturally this plan attracts the most desirable class of prospective home-builders, and as the addition is located on Calhoun street, squarely in the path of Fort Wayne's great southward growth, it must be regarded as one of the really promising additions to city property. For further particulars see the Wildwood Sales company, Shook Building, or any member of the Real Estate exchange.

SATURDAY THE CALLOF TIME

Excitement Tense Among the Contestants
Big Gold and Extra Vote Offer Closes Saturday Night at 9 P. M.—More Instructions to Candidates.

TICK, TICK, TICK, TICK, TICK, TICK! Every swing of the pendulum brings the close of the special gold and extra vote offer. The minutes tick away and lengthen into hours, and only a few hours remain before the giving of thousands of extra votes and liberal prizes that will stop the hands of time. Friday and Saturday, and when the hand points to the hour of 9 p. m., Saturday night, the greatest special announcement yet offered during the campaign will cease. Candidates are watching the clock, for every minute counts with them. To bring in their new subscriptions before the closing hour means a jump in the vote standings that will place them right smack up where they can see visions of a magnificent automobile standing in front of their own door.

Also those who have been plying their time industriously can picture a whole handful of gold—enough to visit nearly all the stores and buy "dew-dads" to their heart's content; others can see their names on pass books showing tidy sums in the banks to their credit.

As the time is drawing nearer for the close of the special offer, excitement becomes tense; practically every one of the candidates is making a vigorous effort to be the highest, or at least among the highest.

In the city the young women are straining every effort to top the list; out in the other districts the contestants are calling their friends to their aid in order not to be outdone. Rarely, indeed, could such pleasurable rivalry be witnessed as that which is now displayed.

Every candidate who turns in, or mails, a combination of $25 in new subscription payments to The Sentinel before the closing hour, receives a special ballot for 90,000 extra votes. The only restriction is that the subscriptions be absolutely "new," and for fifteen weeks or longer. These thousands of votes are an excellent means of placing candidates where they become likely prize-winners at the end of the campaign.

The gold offer comprises in all $200, divided into four prizes, as follows: $100, $50, $20, $20. The highest sum will be won by the young woman who has delivered to the campaign office within the ten days ending Saturday night, the largest amounts in new subscription payments to The Sentinel.

The next highest candidate will take away the $50, and so on, until the entire $200 has been distributed.

The eloquent manner in which The Sentinel candidates are making themselves contenders for these prizes, is bound to gain their ends, for each and every one of them is strong in the determination to be at the top when the clock strikes 9.

Candidates who live outside of the city of Fort Wayne and cannot call personally at the campaign office to turn in their subscriptions, may devote equally as much time to this offer as their city sisters; in order to make this possible all subscriptions and remittances, sent by mail, will be included in this offer, providing the postmark on the letters bear an hour not later than 9 p. m. Saturday evening. Candidates may keep on working until almost the last minute in order to make every possible gain, and have their letters in the postoffice by that hour.

Before the letter is mailed, though, candidates should go over each and every stub carefully and see that each bears correct and full name, the street, and the town or city where the subscription is to go. Also, look carefully to see that the subscription is really new before marking it such.

If an old subscription is turned in as new, no votes will be given the candidate. Such action will cause them to be forfeited, hence care should be taken.

Indications are that a big rush will feature the waning hours of the special offer. The mails yesterday morning brought an armful of letters, and during the day the deluge became even greater.

If you or any relative or friend is worried because of varicose veins, or bunches, the best advice that anyone in this world can give is to get a prescription that many physicians are now prescribing.

Second payment subscriptions may be included in this special offer. That is where a person subscribed to The Sentinel at the beginning of this campaign, and the subscription has since run out, or soon will, a second payment thereon will make the subscription a new one. Such subscriptions should be marked "second payment," and the amount paid first.

SAYS DANGEROUS VARICOSE VEINS CAN BE REDUCED AT HOME

Ask your druggist for an original bottle of Moore's Emerald Oil (full strength) and apply night and morning to the swollen, enlarged veins. Soon you will notice that they are growing smaller and the treatment should be continued until the veins are of normal size. So penetrating and powerful is Emerald Oil that it dissolves gnarled veins and causes them to disappear. It can always be secured at Meyer Drug Co. for 50 cents.—Advertisement.

OSSIAN NEWS.

Ossian, Ind., May 25.—The marriage of Thomas A. Doan, of Ossian, to Mrs. Nettie Osborn, occurred last evening at the home of Mrs. Osborn, on South Ogden street. The ceremony was performed at 5 p. m. by their pastor, Rev. J. Orr Powell, in the presence of about twenty invited guests. Following the ceremony and congratulations a nice wedding supper was served. Mrs. Osborn was the widow of Nelson Osborn. Mr. Doan was formerly a member of the lumber firm of Beaty & Doan, and one of the highly respected citizens of Ossian. The groom is seventy-one years of age and the bride fifty-nine. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. M. Doan, of Fort Wayne, son and daughter-in-law of the groom; Rev. and Mrs. J. Orr Powell, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Krewson, Mr. and Mrs. John Redding, of Prospect; Mrs. Mary Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Roe, the latter a daughter of Mr. Doan.

Mrs. M. E. Spencer and son, Charles Spencer, went to Fort Wayne Wednesday, where Charles had an operation on his nose for the removal of a growth. Dr. Homer Glock performed the operation.

Logical Treatment For Indigestion

A Harmless Method That Prevents Food Souring Stomach. Now Eat Big Meals Without Distress.

Practical Advice to Stomach Sufferers by a New York Physician.

That the widespread sale of digestive aids, dyspeptic tablets, soda water, peptic products and the like is not only making us a nation of confirmed dyspeptics but is responsible for many other serious diseases is the startling claim of a well known New York physician who recently made the statement that there is probably not one case in twenty of so called indigestion that really needs peptic or any other digestive aid to get relief. The trouble with practically all stomach sufferers, says the doctor, is not a lack of the digestive juices, which peptic products undoubtedly supply, but the unnatural condition in the stomach of digests excessive hydrochloric acid which destroys the action of the digestive juices, thus causing the food to ferment and sour, producing poisonous gases and toxic products which not only cause the sour belching, bloating pains and distress of indigestion but often bring biliousness, headaches, nervousness, general weakness and serious intestinal disorders.

The proper way to treat a disordered stomach is to neutralize its excess acid and sweeten the stomach contents so that the digestive juices can do their work naturally without the causing discomfort. Never take large quantities of soda or soda tablets to neutralize acid as soda liberates carbonic acid gas which, added to the gas already in the stomach, may distend the stomach walls, causing very serious trouble.

To my mind there is nothing better to neutralize excess stomach acid and to sweeten a sour stomach than plain bisulphated magnesia taken in teaspoonful doses in a fourth glass of water after meals. Magnesia in the bisulphated form will neutralize almost four times as much acid as soda and does not harm the stomach like soda, being indeed very soothing and healing to the delicate inflamed membranes of both the stomach and intestines. Even in the worst cases this simple treatment will in many instances give relief in from one to five minutes and its use is entirely safe.

In event of chronic, persistent trouble, meal after meal, get 10 cents worth of bisulphated magnesia and take half a teaspoonful in water before meals and then after eating take the bisulphated magnesia as directed above. Do not continue the bisulphated carbonate more than three days, however, as its continued use would cause constipation. But the use of bisulphated magnesia can be continued indefinitely as it is absolutely harmless and no person afflicted with acid stomach should eat a meal without it.

Leading druggists everywhere can supply the pure bisulphated magnesia in sealed packages and it should always be obtained in the bisulphated form. Other forms of magnesia are valuable as laxatives and many weak but bisulphated magnesia is the proper form for correction of stomach acidity.—Advertisement.

Toledo, O., May 25.—Officials of the Toledo American association baseball club announced last night that the case of Pitcher Allan Collamore is up to the national commission for a ruling. Collamore, who was sent here from the Cleveland American league club, was supposed to make an early showing. Manager Bresnahan claims he failed to do so. Collamore was sent back to Cleveland but his return was refused. Collamore at present is playing independent baseball.

KLENKE OUTPOINTED AT MOOSE SHOW

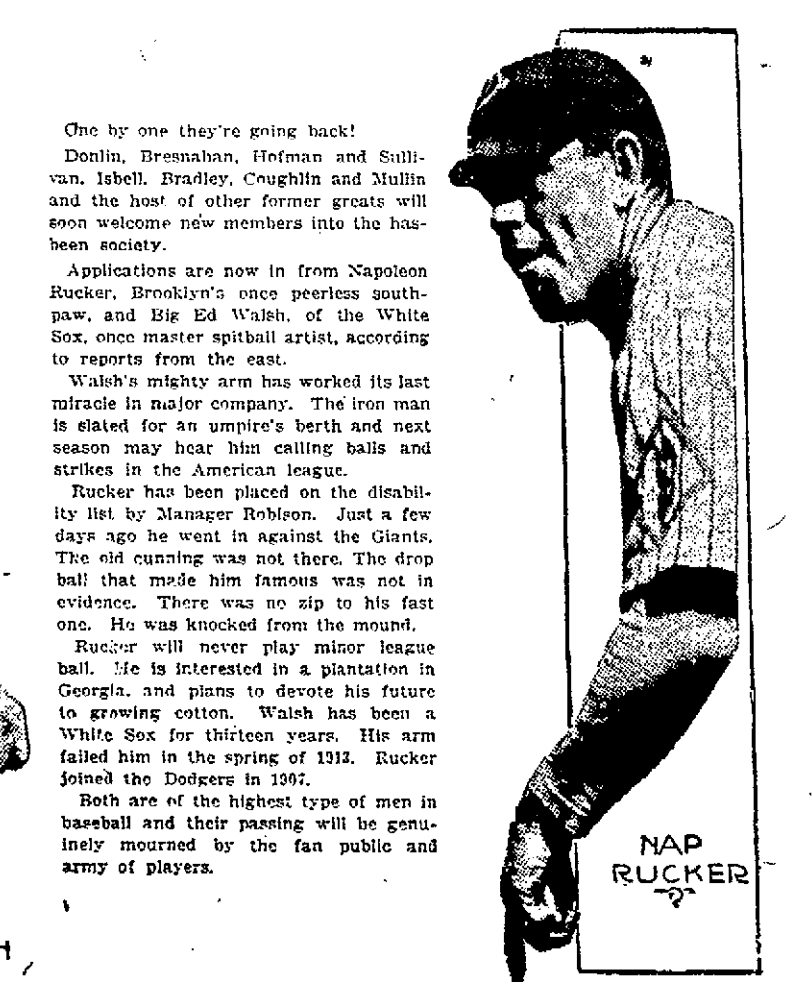

Young Klenke, of this city, was outpointed in a ten-round go with Johnny Newton, of Ottawa, O., at the Moose lodge rooms last night, and Harry McHenry had a very slight shade over Battling Hess, of this city. McHenry fought hard and was the aggressor, and thereby wins the shade. Hess looked good to the house, though, and will step up with the best of them if he gets the right training and management. Will Gaffney refereed the show.

HERE'S PITCHING! RIVALS WHIFFS 48.
Peoria, Ill., May 25.—Forty-eight strikeouts with each hurler, Seldon, for Ye Old Taverners of Peoria, and Ackerman for Morton, Ill., fanning 24 batters, featured a 15-inning game here which resulted in victory for Morton 4 to 3. The Morton team is composed of five Rapp brothers, three Berger brothers, and Ackerman, a cousin of the Rapps.

TAPS SOUND FOR RUCKER AND WALSH, ADDING TWO NEW MEMBERS TO THE LEAGUE OF FORMER GREATS.

One by one they're going back! Donlin, Bresnahan, Hoffman and Sullivan, Isbell, Bradley, Coughlin and Mullin and the host of other former greats will soon welcome new members into the has-been society.
Applications are now in from Napoleon Rucker, Brooklyn's once peerless southpaw, and Big Ed Walsh, of the White Sox, once master spitball artist, according to reports from the east.
Walsh's mighty arm has worked its last miracle in major company. The iron man is slated for an umpire's berth and next season may hear him calling balls and strikes in the American league.
Rucker has been placed on the disability list by Manager Robison. Just a few days ago he went in against the Giants. The old cunning was not there. The drop ball that made him famous was not in evidence. There was no zip to his fast one. He was knocked from the mound.
Rucker will never play minor league ball. He is interested in a plantation in Georgia, and plans to devote his future to growing cotton. Walsh has been a White Sox for thirteen years. His arm failed him in the spring of 1932. Rucker joined the Dodgers in 1927.
Both are of the highest type of men in baseball and their passing will be genuinely mourned by the fan public and army of players.

NINETY THOUSAND FANS WILL SWARM INDIANAPOLIS SPEEDWAY FOR MEMORIAL DAY MOTOR GRIND.

(By Harold Johnson.)
Death defying speed demons will celebrate Memorial day at Indianapolis by striving to decorate racing record books with new marks for long distance motor driving in the sixth annual sweepstakes. Thirty pilots, thirty mechanics and thirty high-powered machines will face the starting flag Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. Racing men say the winner should be known before 5 o'clock.
Ralph DePalma, winner of the 1915 grind, is the only absentee from a field of topmen, his failure to get his car rebuilt in time preventing the Brooklynite from competing.
Last year DePalma and Dario Resta fought it out, with the former averaging 89.81 miles per hour for the 500 miles. Since then speedway officials shortened the distance to 300 miles. Goux and Thomas, former winners, are fighting for France and cannot drive this year, but a British soldier, Josef Christensen, and a teammate, will handle Sunbeam cars shipped from London.
The reduction in length of the race should spell greater speed for the drivers who go faster from the start, knowing they can save 200 miles wear on their cars.
The Hoosier speedway is a brick-paved oval, two and one-half miles around, has four high banked curves and two long straightaways. To encircle the track once a driver must change the position of his car eight times.
Barney Oldfield, dean of the American speed pilots, is billed to make his last race here and will appear at the wheel of a $15,000 Delage presented him by Dave Joyce, Chicago millionaire. Oldfield and Resta are favorites in the early betting. Others doped to run in the front rank are Eddie Riokenbacher, Christensen, Gil Anderson and Eddie O'Donnell.
Attendance records are doomed, according to the officials, who have arranged to accommodate 50,000 spectators.

IT'S GOING TO BE ONE AWFUL BATTLE

Or Else the Press Agents Are Stringing the Deer Peepul.

Indianapolis, May 25.—While Jack Dillon was in Buffalo playing for ten rounds with Bob Devere, the young New York heavyweight, Gunboat Smith was putting in some hard licks for his bout with the Hoosier at Indianapolis. Smith will continue his hard work for several days yet, then will begin to taper off for the contest, which will be staged in Federal park on next Monday night.
The Gunner worked harder yesterday than he has since he began his training here. Several times he stung his negro sparring partner with his punches and was forced to slow up. It takes a husky boy to train the New Yorker, who has one of the hardest punches of any boxer in the game. His judgment of distance, his footwork and his defensive boxing yesterday proved to the crowd of boxing fans who saw him work out that he is in great condition and ready to give Jack Dillon ten rounds of the fastest work he has had for some time.

GIRL, 16, A PYROMANIAC.

Columbus, Ohio, May 25.—State fire marshal office officials regard a sixteen-year-old girl of near Van Wert, committed to the Girls' Industrial home, Delaware, for causing a number of fires, as the most pronounced juvenile pyromaniac ever found by the department.
She seems to be normal in every respect except on the subject of fires. She admitted that she had set fire a dozen times to the house or the family with which she lived. Assistant Fire Marshal Charles Miller was sent to investigate the cause of the fires, and upon his arrival at the community he found another fire in progress. It was at the home of the mother and stepfather of the girl, to which she had gone from the other house, where so many fires had occurred.
Mr. Miller questioned her, and finally obtained a confession. She said that she could not resist the impulse to start a fire. She has been working around at different farm houses since she was eleven years old.

JUVENILE COMPOSER DIRECTS ORCHESTRA

California Boy of Ten is Attaining Fame at an Early Age.

San Francisco, Cal., May 25.—The honor of being the youngest composer to conduct a symphony orchestra through a rendition of his own musical composition.

Winthrop Sargent, juvenile orchestra leader.

tion has been attained by Winthrop Sargent, 10 years old.
After frequent attendance at symphony concerts here, the boy told his music teacher that he would like to write a symphony. He was encouraged to try it. Later he surprised musicians by displaying the full score of his composition, entitled "Legend of the Black Forest."
The San Francisco People's orchestra had announced that it would give local composers the privilege of presenting their own work to the public. Since Winthrop was the first to apply, he was given his opportunity. His direction of the orchestra attracted a large audience at a recent Sunday afternoon concert in the exposition auditorium.
Winthrop is a schoolboy, attending the grammar grade section of the San Francisco State Normal. He is endowed with a love for music far beyond his years.

MORE AMATEURS HAVE DESERTED OLD CAMP

Cleveland, O., May 25.—President Clayton C. Townes, of the newly organized National Amateur Baseball Federation, an offshoot of the National Amateur Baseball association, announced today that amateur organizations in two more cities had deserted the older association for the new federation. The two cities which have left the rival camp are Columbus, O., and Omaha, Neb.
Townes says there are now nineteen cities represented in the new organization and that this is greatly in excess of the number remaining loyal to the old association of which E. C. Heaton, of Chicago, is president.

PLAN FOR THE GOLDEN JUBILEE ANNIVERSARY
Sacred Heart Academy Will Observe Event on June Thirtieth.

Preparations for the most notable celebration in its history are being planned for the golden jubilee anniversary of Sacred Heart academy, which will be observed on June 13 in connection with the annual commencement exercises which will be given at the academy, instead of at the Majestic theater, as has been the custom the past few years.

The anniversary of its fiftieth year will be a home coming event and all former students of the academy will be invited to attend the observance. So widespread has been the attendance at the school that invitations are now hurrying to all points of the compass. Former students in the west, east, north and south are all welcomed home.

As a fitting prelude to the golden jubilee observances, services will be held in the chapel of the school at 9 o'clock. It had been planned to have Bishop Alender celebrate solemn pontifical mass on this occasion, but due to the fact that the prelate has not fully recovered from his recent sickness, the mass will be celebrated by Rev. Joseph A. Ryan, the academy chaplain, who will be celebrant and Rev. William C. Miller, master of ceremonies.

Diplomas and medals for the successful completion of the Academic course will be conferred on Miss Margaret Theresa Dillon, Union City, Ind.; Miss Matilda Marie Berling, Decatur, Ind.; Miss Esther Harriet Bloom, Fort Wayne; Miss Matilda Ethel Michael, Chicago, Ill.

FRANK COMPANY NOT LIABLE FOR DAMAGES

Decision is Made in Fort
Wayne Store Elevator
Accident.

Indianapolis, Ind., May 25.—If a person is injured or killed while engaged in "fooling" or "skylarking" or "horseplay," no compensation for the injury or death can be recovered under the Indiana workmen's compensation law, according to a decision given today by Charles R. Hughes and Samuel R. Artman, members of the state industrial board in the case against the Frank Dry Goods company, of Fort Wayne, for the death of Alfred Neumann, a boy in its employ.

Edgar A. Perkins, chairman of the board, after a dissenting opinion. Neumann, filed a dissenting opinion. Neumann, after he had been scuffling with a 15-year-old elevator boy, leaped into the elevator and was caught and killed. The majority opinion holds that the injury did not "arise out of his employment," because Neumann was playing.

GRAND JURY AGAIN AT SCHERER MATTER

Inquisitorial Body Gets to
Work on Township
Trustee's Case.

For the second time within a few weeks the April grand jury of Allen county went into session Thursday morning to consider the case of Henry P. Scherer, trustee of Wayne township. An accusation for impeachment was returned against Trustee Scherer in April.

When the grand jurors assembled before Judge John W. Eggenman Thursday morning in the circuit court, they were informed by the judge simply that Prosecutor Frank A. Emrick had some matters he desired to present to their attention. No instructions were given and the jury retired to its room, where Prosecutor Emrick laid the Scherer matter before them.

During the forenoon some witnesses were examined and in the afternoon, following luncheon, the jury returned to its deliberations. It was thought that they would be ready to report before evening.

Neither Prosecutor Emrick and his deputies, Byron Hays and John C. Hoffmann, spent much time with the jury, whose members were left largely to pursue their own way their own fashion. There has been much speculation as to the probability of criminal indictments being returned against Trustee Scherer for alleged malfeasances in office.

Although there is in Barcelona, Spain, a supply of electricity available for charging electric trucks and passenger automobiles, such vehicles are not to be seen there.

SECOND BATCH IN PAVING PROGRAM

Board to Have Resolutions
for 22 Streets, Including
St. Joe Drive.

The second installment of the 1916 paving program in Fort Wayne will be taken up by the board of works Thursday evening, when resolutions for the improvement of twenty-two streets are expected to be adopted. This list of streets includes St. Joe boulevard, which is to be paved from Lake avenue to McDougall avenue. The St. Joe drive is to be improved under a special resolution drawn by City Attorney Guy Colerick to meet peculiar legal conditions created by the fact that it is to embrace flood protection as well as street improvements by the construction of a curb four feet in height along the river side of the street and that an assessment district to cover Lakeside and Forest Park additions will be created to pay for it. Two other resolutions will cover the remainder of the thoroughfare—one dealing with the section from McDougall avenue to Forest avenue, which is to be an ordinary paving improvement, and the other dealing with the drive from Forest to State, which will be of boulevard style, with central parkways and fifteen-foot driveways on either side. The other streets to be paved are as follows:

Melita street, Harrison to Webster; Bass street, Highland to Fairfield; Webster street, Woodland to Pontiac; Grace avenue, Broadway to Fox; Lindley avenue, Taylor to Park view; Park view avenue, Lindley to Broadway; Seimney street, Wall to Seimney; Carl street, Calhoun to the alley east; Hugh street, Hanna to Gay; Old Ford street, Lake to St. Joe; Lake avenue, Anthony to the city limits; Purman street, Warsaw to the alley east; Hanna street, Radcliff to McKinnis; Second street, Harrison to Cass; Fry street, Main to Boone; Garden street, Washington to Jefferson; Nelson street, Jefferson to Wilt; Jackson street, Jefferson to Wilt; Lavina street, Broadway to Rockhill.

The St. Joe boulevard improvement will complete an unbroken driveway around the Lakeside and Forest Park region by way of Lake avenue to Forest Park boulevard, thence to State boulevard and thence to St. Joe and thence to Lake.

The inclusion of the Lake avenue resolution for paving from Anthony boulevard to the city limits revives a project that was killed over a year ago. It will close an unimproved gap in the street between the paved portion of Lake and the beginning of the Mayville highway, which is paved.

Favorite Recipes of Movie Players

By Agnes Vernon.

For a dainty dish to adorn the tea table or supper table I know of nothing better than macaroni soup. It isn't hard to put together, and it certainly pays for the little trouble it takes to make, both in appearance and taste.

This is my favorite recipe and I make it after the following fashion:

Crush with a rolling pin a half pound of macaroni.

Make a custard of three well beaten eggs and one pint of milk, together with a half cupful of granulated sugar. Cook in double boiler until thick and smooth. Set aside to cool.

When cool, stir into this mixture a pint of heavy cream, together with the macaroni and preferred flavoring. Almond flavoring is delicious, but some prefer vanilla. Turn into freezer and turn until frozen.

In Turkey clocks are set to stand at 12 when the sun goes down.

The atmosphere contains traces of helium and peroxide of hydrogen.

Mary and Her Little Lamb

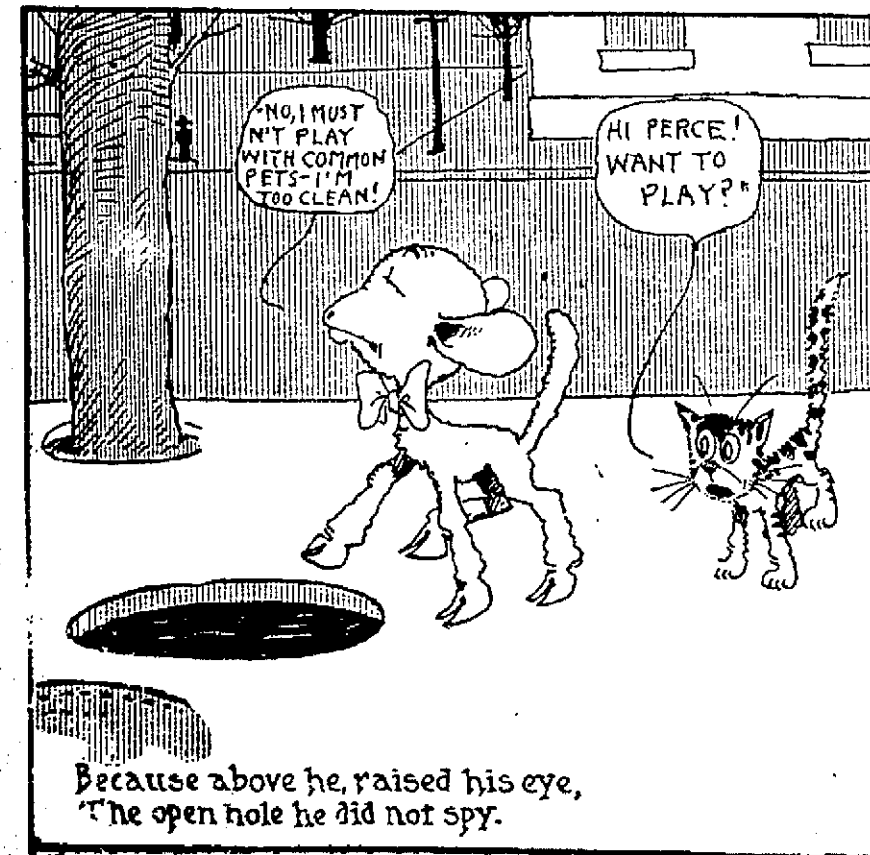

The Mary's lamb was white as snow,
'Twas hard indeed to keep him so.

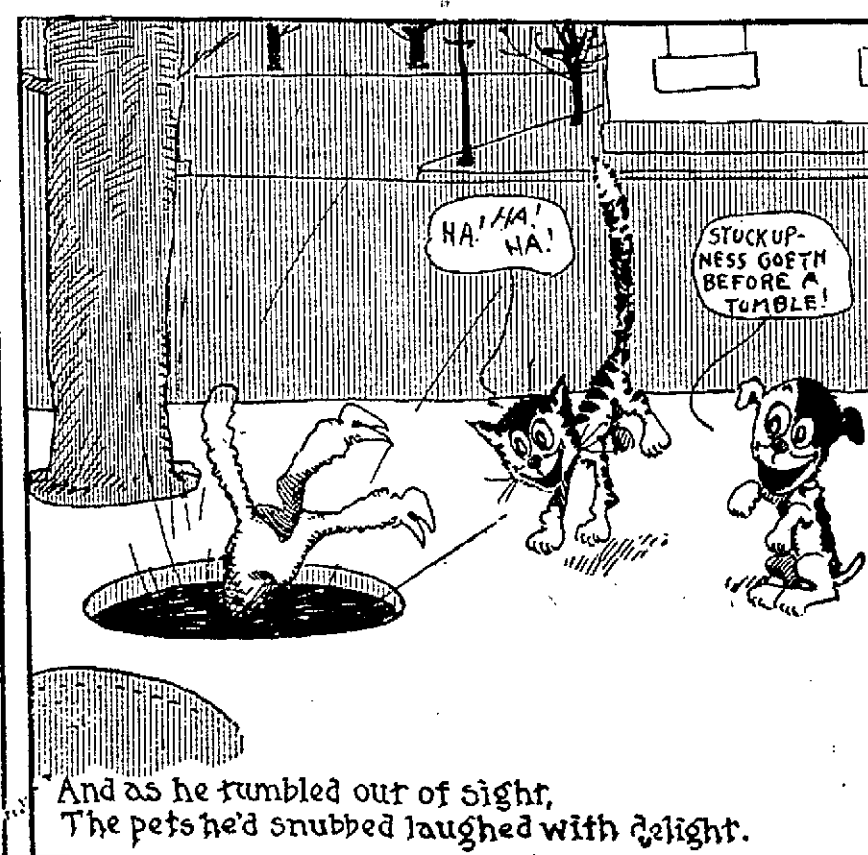

So when she sent him out to play,
She warned him to keep clean that day.

Thus Percy walked with head erect,
Nor deigned to see a common pet.

Because above he raised his eye,
The open hole he did not spy.

And as he tumbled out of sight,
The pets he'd snubbed laughed with delight.

With blackened face back home he came,
And wasn't Mary mad again!
